LIMERICK'S SECOND MAJOR FIRE IN TEN DAYS

Limerick's second major fire within ten days occurred during the early hours of this morning, when what portion of the Playhouse, headquarters of the College Players, situated in Playhouse Lane, between Henry Street and Upper O'Connell Street, and the rear portion of the Revenue Commissioners offices in O'Connell Street, were badly damaged.

TRIBUTES TO FIRE BRIGADE.

Lt. Col. Edward Ryan, Deputy Commissioner, Urban Fire Brigade, said firemen had distinguished themselves.

“THIS great Irish-Ireland Worker in Limerick Bereaved

Great, Irish, Ireland, Worker in Limerick Bereaved

The death of Mr. John H. Coley, of 11 Southfield Road, Limerick, on Wednesday, was announced. Mr. Coley was the gossip of the town and was a well-known figure in Limerick. Mr. Coley was a member of the Free Church and was active in local affairs. He was a member of the Limerick Police and Fire Brigade and was a keen supporter of the local football team.

THE CLIMAX OF THE DEATH OF GERARD MONAGHAN

The death of Mr. Gerard Monaghan, of 12 Southfield Road, Limerick, on Wednesday, was announced. Mr. Monaghan was a well-known figure in the town and was a keen supporter of the local football team. He was a member of the Limerick Police and Fire Brigade and was active in local affairs.

SIXTY NINE YEARS AGO LIMERICK HAD A SIMILAR FIRE DISASTER

Sixty-Nine years ago the fire of Todd & Co., Ltd., William Street, was involved in a fire that had similar features to the outbreak that destroyed Limerick's Grafton Street premises twelve days ago.

The following article appeared in the Limerick Leader of September 30, 1900:

“CITIZENS GOING TO BE PROTECTED, SAYS JUSTICE

ACTS OF VANDALISM IN THE GALBALLY DISTRICT

The Patricians: Regina Cecilia Circle

Past Pupils And University