

ng to the church approaches. St. ...
's is the most historic parish in the se, with its wealth of tradition, ous above and beyond all, which borne the name of Limerick into 7 lands. To-morrow's ceremonies in ur of the Heavenly Queen will con-of the celebration of High Mass at o'clock, at which the Bishop will de, sermon by the Very Rev. H.
, C.S.S.R., Provincial, and evening tions.

STEP FORWARD.

eculation swings round the future of City Roller Mill when vacated, probnext year. Roche's Street will, by transfer of the machinery for the luction of flour to the dockside, lose n-eights of its activities. The noise motor lorries will be reduced, the of revolving machinery silenced, the pigeons must migrate lower n for the daily ration of corn. The r Mill is not an old building, and en erected by that enterprising tchman, Mr. James Bannatyne, he's Street was a very busy thorhfare. But ideas and fashions e changed and are changing, and in oving to the docks Messrs. Rank are ng another step forward.

£16,000 RUBY.

One of the rarest jewels in the world on sale in London. It is the Burmese oy, priced at £16,000. Threequarters an inch long, set in a platinum ring. e ruby is described by connoisseurs as e "Koh-i-Noor of the ruby world." At the West End jewellers where the m is a reporter was told: "There are ly about six such stones in the world -day. Weight for weight, it is three nes as valuable as the most expensive amond."

The stone was discovered when new orkings in the ruby mine area of arma were opened.

philosophy of National Socialism. Nobody with a love of liberty could, especially Irishmen, who have bitter experience of oppression and ruthlessness. The philosophy preached and practised in Germany is at variance and in violent contrast with everything held sacred by the people of this country. It is un-Christian, of pagan growth and a contradiction of human dignity and self respect. We have the highest authority on that, the late Pope, the great and saintly Pius XI.
The Galway conference was informed by this same delegate that we could learn from Germany it was possible for a Government to have control of production and consumption. Is not output regulated by our Government at the moment and prices fixed for necessaries? There is rather overmuch of State interference according to very many and any more would not be desirable. Democracy could be regulated too according to this authority on economics. Quite so, and it could be manacled if the people were willing to accept the shackles, but the time is not yet, and it is hoped never will be.

DEATHS.

DODDS—August 19, 1939, at Kyleglas, Limerick, Sarah Mabel, beloved wife of Joseph Dodds. Funeral private.
No flowers.

SMITH—August 5, 1939, at her residence, 23, Gainsboro' Place, Vancouver, B.C., Jane, widow of Richard, late of Rose Hill, Limerick, and second daughter of the late Thomas Robinson, Limerick.