

commanding 4th Sikhs, of a son.

MARRIAGES.

At Monkstown Church, county Dublin, John R. Fawcett, of Herbert-place, Dublin, barrister-at-law, and J.P. of county of Roscommon, to Isidora Jane, daughter of the late Lt.-Col. D. L. Fawcett, C.B., 55th Regt. At Ryde, Isle of Wight, William Beers, Esq., Capt. in 26th Cameronians, son of William Beers, Esq., of Brook Cottage, county Down, and of Ballysheil, county Armagh, Ellen, daughter of the late Sir George Maclean, K.C.B. At Old Charlton, Kent, Julius G. T. Griffith, Esq., Captain Royal Engineers, son of Lieut.-General J. G. Griffith, R.A., to Anna Maria, daughter of Captain H. Bonham Bayly, of Old Charlton, Kent. At Ahmednugger, Bombay, Lieutenant G. W. Bradaile, R.H.A., to Catherine C. Straker, daughter of the late C. D. Straker, C.B., Physician-General, Bombay Army. At Poonah, Bombay, C. T. Haig, Esq., Captain Royal Engineers (Bombay), to Katharine Newman, daughter of J. N. Walker, Esq., of Bedford. At Bangalore, Madras, Major H. N. D. Prendergast, V.C., Royal Engineers, to Emilie Rachel, daughter of F. Sampson, Esq.

DEATHS.

On the 1st inst., at Knockaderry House, in this county, after a lingering illness, to the deep regret of her family and friends, Anna Maria, eldest daughter of Thomas D'Arcy Evans, Esq., J.P. Her remains will be interred at 11 o'clock on to-morrow morning, in the family vault at Churchtown, Newcastle West. At No. 2, Hartstonge-street, Limerick, on the 2nd instant, Windham F. Paterson, Esq., deeply regretted by his relatives and friends. His remains will be interred on Thursday morning, at 11 o'clock, in the family vault at Eanis. At his residence, in Thomas-street, very much regretted, Dr. Richard Carroll, a young gentleman of high promise in the medical profession, son of Mr. Martin Carroll, of William-street, in this city. In New York, Theodore Benjamin Pearse, aged 3 years and 8 months, son of Theodore Joseph and Sarah Allen Pearse, of London, England, and of Limerick, Ireland. On the 30th ult., Caroline Mary, eldest surviving daughter of the Right Hon. Thomas O'Hagan, M.P., Attorney-General for Ireland. At Upper Park, Queenstown, Jannette, relict of the late Henry Braddell, Esq. At Monkstown, county Cork, Mr. Wm. N. Brash. At Patrick-street, Cork, Miss Jane M'Carthy. At William-street, Youghal, Richard Pilkington, Esq. At Ballynorig House, co. Kerry, Jonathan Walpole, Esq. At Ardougher, county Kerry, Thomas, second son; and John, third son of Mr. John Boyle, P.L.G. At Clonskeagh, Arabella, daughter of the late Rev. John Day, Rector of Kiltallagh, county Kerry. At Lennox-street, Dublin, Elizabeth, widow of the late James P. Lamb, builder, formerly of Stephen's-green, West, in that city. At Kingstown, Mary, daughter of the late Rev. R. Jones, Llanestyn Rectory, Carnarvonshire. At Cavan, Anne, wife of the Rev. Hugh Murray, Rector of the united parishes of Urney and Annageliff. At Rockfield, county Meath, Mary Martha Sutton, relict of the late Rev. Thomas Sutton, Rector of Clongill, diocese of Meath. At Killarney-hill, Bray, Mrs. M'Kenzie, relict of Kenneth M'Kenzie, Esq. At Linenhall-street, Belfast, Margaret, wife of Capt. James Tedford. At Cambridge-road, Hansmersmith, London, Captain J. S. Cremer, late of the Royal Artillery. At Dover, Anne, daughter of the late Lieut. W. B. Ponsonby, Bombay Army. At Baywater, London, Edith Annie St. John, youngest child of Lieut.-Colonel Rose, 2nd Regt. At Guernsey, Major Thomas Clifton Alba, Infantry Staff Corps. At Umballah, East Indies, Major Francis Macdonald Crawford, 94th Foot. Lost in the Perla, between Rangoon and Calcutta, Major John Patrick Neil Donald Mackellar, Madras Artillery Corps.

express their in- in course of signa- as to the wisdom- er than the gentle- ted, or than his re- mitted on the 12th- l heartiest condem- sympathy for the- n is worth having- a public meeting,- forced to Fenians- insult and annoy- inhabitants of Skib- go under a magis- think, should sug- ger in their hands.- ing notice of the- vant Mr T Somer- ned:—the trial of- th the transaction- esday.—Skibbereen

l arrested in Clon- ss and disorderly- dice-office the man- ocket was found a- document, dated- n by some person- ully to be found in- sessor belonged.— n of exterminating- ntry, and, in lau- ted out the abso- the most dreadful- lluded to the time- n," and when they- nt people besides- gent was the ficti- acwhimpe." This,- oments that are- try, poisoning the- peasantry.—Clon-

be held at the- ext, the 7th Inst.,- he most suitable- KEARNEY, Esq.,- his promotion to nd City of ry.

ANS, ary, pro. tem.

the HOSPITAL a on MONDAY, a Committee of accordance with ent.

HON. M.D., secretary.

comfort, which he had not previously using the ordinary Glasses and Pebu park, county of Roscommon.

The HON. MAJOR KEANE considers has been materially improved by the- plied by Mr. Solomons' some years a- read newspaper print with greater- before, even without artificial assista-

From the Very Rev. Dean Farre "DEAN FARRELLY is enabled, after- perience, to state that Mr. E. Solomo- are really what they are represented t- Preservers for the sight ever produced- him the greatest ease and pleasure- many hours, either by day or artificial li- ment he had not previously had when- glasses or pebbles"—Ardagh, County I- (From the Rev. M. J. M'DONNELL,

"I have tried glasses for several ye- derived from Mr. Solomons' Spectacles- repose for the eye, in addition to the gr- comfort. M: J. M'Donnell, P.P., V- Kerry."

(From the Rev. M. KENNIPECK "Allow me to express my satisfaction- tacles supplied by Mr. SOLOMONS ;- comfort with them. They enable me- most perfect ease, creating a refreshing c- out the slightest sensation of pain or la- eye.

" MAURICE KENNI- "Rathcormac, county Cork."

The REV. PATRICK M'KEON, P.P., ha- for a very lengthened period from extrei- sight, occasioned by constant reading, a- Solomons for a pair of his celebrated spe- have rendered so much service to his ey- him to be grateful—his sight is much- The Rev. Mr. M'Keon is happy in th- to discharge a duty to the public by conf- own case, the opinion so universally e- "Solomons' Spectacles," as he had prev- enced much injury and annoyance froi- pebbles purchased at other houses.—Dri- ford:

Mr. E. SOLOMONS' Spectacles have- eminent members of the Faculty, the Not- &c., including—The Lord Chief Justice- Lords Clonbrock, Crofton, Dunboyne, the Deans of Ossory, Dromore, Clogher- &c., &c.

The limits of an advertisement preclu- sibility of publishing the numerous Testim- are in Mr. SOLOMONS' possession, from- guished persons, and from eminent me- Faculty of the United Kingdom.

CAUTION.—To prevent Imposition- sary to observe that Mr. E. SOLOMO-

NO AGENTS OR TRAVELLERS- and, after his departure from Limerick, h- can only be obtained at his Establishmen-

19, NASSAU-STREET, DUB- to which Address all Communications, for Repair should be sent, when they wi- prompt and particular attention, Dec. 24.