

---

TING WEDDING

---

Families United

---

KEANE AND MR. H. J. DELMEGE.

A pretty wedding took place at Cappoquin Church, Cappoquin, yesterday. The bride, Miss Freda Keane, Belleville, daughter of the late Lt.-Col. R. H. Keane, was married to Mr. James Delmège, son of the late Mr. James Delmège, Castle Park, Limerick, Cappoquin, Managing Director of the Cappoquin Bacon Factory, founded by his father in 1840. He is also Hon. Secretary of the West Waterford Hunt. Miss Keane is the daughter of Senator Sir John Keane, Cappoquin, brother of her late father. She is well known as a woman. She is a regular competitor in the West Waterford Hunt, and has occupied the position of honor for many years. She is excellent amongst all sporting circles in Munster, and particularly native Cappoquin.

Mr. Delmège is also a member of a sporting family, and is a successful gentleman jockey.

The marriage ceremony was performed by the Rev. H. Thompson, B.A., Cappoquin, assisted by the Venerable Archdeacon, M.A., Rector do., in the presence of a select and fashionable attendance of a limited nature, as no invitations had been sent out except to the contracting parties.

The bride looked charming in a Force blue, carried no bouquet, and wore a novelty by having a white flower (The best man was Capt. O'Riordan, brother of the bridegroom), and the Hon. H. G. Wellesley was unable to attend. The bride was given away by her brother, Mr. Delmège.

thanks to the Chairman.

---

THE LATE MR J. F. N. BAKER

---

The death of the late Mr. John Fell Neave Baker took place at his residence, 50 O'Connell Street, Limerick, unexpectedly, on Tuesday last, and deep sympathy is felt for his widow at the passing of one whose gentleness and kindness endeared him to all with whom he came into contact.

The funeral took place at St. Mary's Cathedral on Thursday afternoon. The Very Rev. G. L. Swain, M.A., Dean of Limerick, assisted by the Rev. G. H. J. Burrows, M.A., conducted the very simple burial service.

The chief mourners were:—Mrs Louie Baker (widow), and the Misses Emmeline and Eileen Hawker (sisters-in-law).

The attendance included—Messrs. A. J. Eakins, E. H. Bennis, W. H. Walsh, and Mrs. Walsh, J. G. Boyd, W. T. Boyd, E. L. Wickham, H. M. Stewart, Granville Metcalfe, T. R. Mitchell, J. L. Enright, W. Morrow, H. W. West, G. A. Trousdale, P. Fogerty, D. C. Miller, Mrs. Auchmuty, T. W. Auchmuty, A. Smyth and Mrs. Smyth, G. W. Preston, R. Hetherington, W. Enright, S. Kidd, G. Bingham.

Mr. Baker's relatives from England were unable to attend owing to war conditions.

The Rev. Treasurer T. F. Abbott, B.D., Rector of St. Michael's, who is ill, was unable to be present.

Wreaths were sent by:—Mrs Baker, Mrs Monks, Mrs Mayes and Miss Baker (Brean), the Misses Hawker and Mr. W. Hawker, Mr and Mrs Tom Marshall (Derby), Canon and Mrs Abbott, and Miss Abbott, Miss Auchmuty, H. W. West, and M. H. Franklin, Mus.B., Miss Mabel Enright, J. G. Boyd and Miss Boyd, St. Michael's Choir, Mrs Harris, and Mrs W. H. Walsh.

At a meeting of the Select Vestry of St. Michael's Church, held on Wednesday, a resolution of deep sympathy with Mrs Baker was passed.

Creamery, stated he knew the deceased was a working, energetic man, and his affairs with regard to his death, however, the milk was taken away in the milk s during the last gallons.

Judge—If I come I think £300 will be under the circumstances.

For the defence, John M. O'Dwyer, car, stated he was present at Clongowes on the 13th January, driving licence to have been instructed in the father. On the day of driving a Morris Tipperary. When he drove from Dromkeen Cross he was on the side of the road.

at about 25 miles per hour, the brakes when he was on the road. The car was on a frozen surface and a man. He was on the road when the im- Laurence Kieley was in the car with O'Dwyer. Evidence.

John Heelan, the driver, had been giving evidence in driving for the plaintiff, always a careful driver.

The Judge said he would pronounce his award at a later date.

---

TRESPASS

Possession

At Limerick City Court, on Monday, before Judge Limerick Board of action for £25 against Michael Keran and Maurior, Kilbehenny. Mr. T. K. Lister and Mr. M. F. Noon for the plaintiffs B.L. (instructed