

about with the cause of the fact that the friends of believe, never ventured to this country to support at in itself is a conclu-erance of public opinion. government, for which he held responsible has y the American people. ither side idle words of sponsible persons which forgiven. Let them be dent Lincoln."

hunting ladies may be ferant with sportswomen, portswomen. The differ-and a sportsman is that y a good ride with a cerement, whereas the latter mysterious delight in the e animal. The feeling of ce, to some extent, be reure in the exercise of his skill of the hounds. But be something in it more this kind may perhaps be of natural selection. We stors were at one time a on the animals that they e most likely to thrive, killed most animals, and ds who took a pleasure in re would in time come to instinct impelling men to utilitarian purposes, and s appearance from time y, as circumstances hapopment. At any rate distinct sporting character.
 highly esteemed by its selves far above mere rable, indeed, are the an considered, that they ighable way, by men who ine afflatus. It is no ntleman who at the first hipper-in, from the style pearance. He will affect hounds, and to know all huntsman is within ear-rn out that he makes will also signalize himself be silent, and by offering he master and huntsman.
 regulated ambition to be not a mere hunting man.
 be possessed in like way sportswoman, let her by she may come, if she will, e must come because she and to gallop over the spirits and a brave heart.
 ng to be knowing about uth of a fox.—Saturday

April, by the Rev. N. G. Higginson, Mr. George Stock, eldest son of Thomas Stock, Esq., to Agnes, eldest daughter of Luke Mullock, Esq., of Limerick.

At St. Anne's Church, Dublin, John C. Warae, Esq., Lieutenant 24th Regt., to Frances, daughter of the late Edmund O'Ryan, Esq., of Bansa Castle, county Tipperary.

In St. Mary's Church, Dublin, Mr. Edward Kennedy, of Garry Castle, King's County, to Annie, daughter of the late Herbert Gillman, Esq., of Woodbrook, county Cork.

In St. James's Church, Dublin Edward Palliser, Esq., Captain 7th Hussars, to Jane, widow of B. Brocas, Esq., and daughter of the late General Sir John Rose, of Holme, Liver-ness-shire.

At St. Mark's, Liverpool, Thomas, son of Edward Scanlan, Esq., Mullinahone, county Tipperary, to Maria, daughter of Thomas Boumpfrey, Esq., Liverpool.

At Trinity Church, Marylebone, London, Lieut.-General P.
 Spencer Stanhope, Colonel 13th Light Infantry, to Mary Catherine, widow of the late Edward R. Strickland, Esq.

At Westbourne-terrace, London, J. Hotham Kingston, Esq., to Jane Anna, daughter of the late Major T. Lennox Galloway, 10th Regt.

At Christ Church, Lee, Kent, George Robert Stewart Black, Esq., Captain 60th Royal Rifles, to Frances Wilhelmina, daughter of Charles Sutton Campbell, Esq., H.B.M. Vice-Consul, Port St. Mary's, Spain.

In St. Thomas's, Portsmouth, Herbert Augustus, son of the late Wm. Conway Harpour, Major 80th Regt., to Kate Wilkinson, daughter of Richard White, surgeon, Portsmouth.

At Knightsbridge, London, Alfred Edward Turner, Esq., Royal Artillery, to Emma Blanche, daughter of C. Hopkinson, Esq., of Wotton, Gloucestershire.

At St. James's Church, Paddington, London, Robt. Henry, son of Edmund Barker Ray, Esq., of Prince's-gate, Hyde-park, to Agnes Cavendish, daughter of the late Duke of Devonshire.

DEATHS.

At Derry Castle, on yesterday morning, to the inexpressible grief of her parents, and deep regret of her friends, Caroline Mary Gertrude, only daughter of William Spaight, Esq., aged 8 years and 6 months.

On the 7th inst., at Clarinda Park, Kingstown, Amelia Agnes, the beloved daughter of E. F. Goff, Esq., of this city.

Yesterday, in Wickham-street, the wife of Mr. Timothy St. Lawrence, grocer.

At George's-street, Cork, Bryan Adams, Esq., of H.M.'s Customs.

In Cork, Sarah, widow of Henry T. Hoare, Esq., solicitor.

At Queenstown, Wm. Baldwin West, son of Wm. Arthur West, Esq., M.D.

At Fermoy, Mrs. Foley, relict of the late Mr. John Foley.

At Derrynahinch, county Tipperary, the residence of her father, Edward Walsh, Esq., Mary Ellen, wife of Edward Kehoe Sweetman, Esq.

At Belvidere-place, Dublin, Lucinda, daughter of the late Archibald St. George, Esq., barrister-at-law.

At Charlemont-street, Dublin, Harriet Arabella, daughter of Thomas Hyde, Esq., solicitor, Ballinasloe.

At Fairview-avenue, Dublin, Fanny, daughter of the late George Ledwith, Esq., solicitor.

At the Carmelite Convent, Sandymount, Dublin, Mother Joseph Dunne, daughter of the late Peter Dunne, Esq., of Killincarrick, county Wicklow.

At Monark House, county Wexford, E. R. Cookman, Esq.

At Lismacaffry, Westmeath, James Fagan, Esq.

At High-street, Kilkenny, Mr. James Cassin.

At Castle Strange, county Roscommon, Marianne, widow of Edward Mitchell, Esq.

Suddenly, at Osborne-terrace, Clapham-road, London, Major General Robert Bateman.

At Walmer, Kent, Admiral Sir Edward Harvey, G.C.B.

At Clifton, Charles Ruxton, son of the late Wm. Ruxton, Esq., of Ardee, county Louth.

At Hastings, Sussex, Reginald John, son of Dr. Barton, Staff Surgeon R.N.

At Bath, suddenly, Isabel Watson, daughter of the late Lieut.-Colonel A. S. Watson, Bengal Army.

At Westop-super-Mare, Commander Edward Hardy, R.N.

At Cheltenham, the infant son of Col. A. Impey.

At Chelton, Oriel Frederick, son of Lieut.-Colonel J. J.
 Combs, Bombay Army.

At Chascopus, Buenos Ayres, the Rev. Michael Aloysius Connolly, a native of Longhrea.

To Notice

PERSONS desirous of ten-Chancel and Secretary to Kildimo, County Limerick, in and Specification which are by Kildimo, from the 8th until the clusive.

The Tenders to be delivmarked Tenders, to the Rev.
 Pallaskeary, County Limerick,
 the 20th of May, 1865.

The Committee do not bind the lowest or any of the tenders.
 May 10.

Public Auction

OF THE

WELLESLEY BRIDGE

ON

TUESDAY, 16th May

At Two o'Clock

THE Commissioners of Public

Notice that they will put tion, by Auction, at the Limerick sioners' Rooms, Chamber of Com-16th May Inst., at Two o'Clock WELLESLEY BRIDGE, for 19th May next, the Tolls to be Gate as at present, and according in the Schedule in the hands our Commissioners' Secretary, will be required, and the possi-security must be in attendance Notes or Acceptances. A mo-vance will be required. The on the 16th of May, being subjthe Commissioners of Public Works.

The following are to be exempt
 The Mayor and his Officers, whbour Commissioners and the Se-and Clerks, the Harbour Master, foot passengers, and the Engin-employed by the Harbour Com-the Bridges, Dock, or Quay Work-or Workmen, also the Carriers c-ing or discharging vessels lying Strand, and other conditions innounced previous to the Sale.

By Order,

STEPHEN J

JOHN SEYM

Harbour Commissioners' Office

May 9, 1865.

Limerick U

THE Board of Guardians, WEDNESDAY, the 17th ders for the supply of

3 CASKS to receive Rain-holding 200 Gallons each.

By order,

2nd May, 1865.