DEATHS.

This morning, at his residence, in George-street, after a few days' illness, of gastric fever, Doctor Daniel Griffin, one of the leading medical gentlemen of our city, and for many years connected with all the public charitable institutions of Limerick. The announcement of the death of Doctor Griffin will be received with deep regret by all who had the pleasure of his acquaintance, for a more amiable, mild, and unassuming member of the profession of which he was an ornament did not exist, notwithstanding his vast intellectual acquirements and extensive practice. The deceased was brother of the renowned Gerald Griffin, author of "The Collegians," &c., whose writings gained such celebrity throughout the kingdom. His remains will be interred at 6 o'clock on Monday morning, in the New Cemetery.

At Abbeyfeale, on the 28th July, Ellen, the beloved wife of Michael Gallwey, Esq., R.M., deeply and deservedly regretted.

On Thursday night, at his residence, Osmington Terrace, after a short illness, Mary, the beloved wife of Mr. James Brien, and sister of Mr. Michael Clanchy, High Constable of this city.

At Lisreaghan, county Galway, Georgina, wife of Walter Lawrence, Esq., and daughter of the late Charles Blake, Esq., Merlin Park, county Galway.

At Laurel Lodge, Dublin, Mary, relict of the late John Watson, Esq.

At Jockey Hall, the Curragh, county Kildare, J. Brennan, Esq., V.S., formerly of the Royal Artillery.

At Balbriggan, John Baker, Esq., J.P.

At Ardmore, county Cavan, the Rev. Samuel Crookshanks, Presbyterian Seceding Minister.

At Dover-street, London, Urania, wife of Admiral Sir Edward Tucker, G.C.B.

At Hanover, his Excellency General Hugh Baron Halkett, G.C.H.
