

miss it will have an opportunity of seeing a really delightful.

Carnival, which will continue on the 25, attracted huge crowds week-end. The Stratosphere ded numerous thrills with his and daring feats at the top of flexible steel mast. Would you put your head on top of the statue? Makes you dizzy to look at, doesn't it? Yet the Stratosphere stunts on a swaying pole 100 feet higher than Nelson's Column. His calm ignoring of danger will not catch your breath. Consequence who have not yet seen the so fantastically spectacular event ever in the history of the British Empire should not postpone their visit to the Belfield Park.

THE ELECTION OF CARNIVAL QUEEN...

An interesting competition is being held next week in the election of a Carnival Queen, and already there is a great rivalry as to who will be elected. The late Mrs. O'Rahilly has been well known for many years as a popular lady, and we are sure that the competition is going to be very keen. The workers of one local factory are so keen that one of their staff will be elected. While we wish them every success, we are sure there are many other workers in the city who will also have a chance of winning this enviable title.

A committee in charge of the Carnival is offering a prize of £5 to the lady who will be elected. This will be given in the form of an order of that value for the purchase of the goods of the advertisers in our programme, which the elected lady may use as she wishes.

A tug-of-war competition will also be a sensation, as entries have been received from the Post Office, Boyd's, Cannock's, McBirrell's (builders), and teams are being prepared by the staffs in the bacon factories.

FANCY DRESS PARADE.

On the day, the 18th June, there will be a fancy dress parade for children, and prizes are being awarded for the most original and the prettiest costumes. Arrangements for the Dog Show are yet completed. Details will be given in the course of the coming week. It will be the most intriguing and ment is expected from the leaders in about a week's time. It is stated, however, that the party will not be launched for about six months.

LATE MRS. HUMPHREYS

An Taoiseach Attends Funeral

Four Ministers were among the large attendance at the funeral of Mrs. Mary Ellen Humphreys, Ailesbury Road, Dublin, widow of Dr. D. Humphreys, Limerick, and sister of the late The O'Rahilly, from the Church of the Sacred Heart, Donnybrook, to Abington, Murroe, Co. Limerick, after Requiem Mass celebrated by Rev. E. Cahill, S.J.

Chief mourners:—Mr. R. Humphreys, B.L., Mr. E. Humphreys, B.Arch. (sons); Mrs. D. O'Donoghue (daughter); Miss A. O'Rahilly (sister); Madame O'Rahilly (sister-in-law); The O'Rahilly, Eoghan O'Rahilly, Maolmuire O'Rahilly, Niall O'Rahilly (nephews); Mrs. R. Humphreys and Mrs. E. Humphreys (daughters-in-law); Mr. D. O'Donoghue (son-in-law); Mr. D. Mongan, Miss Mongan, Mrs. Guiney (cousins); Rev. P. O'Mara, S.J.; Mr. J. Walters and Mrs. Walters, Mrs. Humphreys, Mr. T. Humphreys, Mr. and Mrs. J. O'Mara, Mr. S. O'Mara, Mrs. Platt, Prof. T. O'Rahilly and Mrs. O'Rahilly.

The attendance included: An Taoiseach; Mr. F. Aiken, Minister for Defence; Mr. Sean MacEntee, Minister for Finance; Dr. J. Ryan, Minister for Agriculture; Mr. P. J. Little, Parliamentary Secretary to the Taoiseach; Mr. Justice Conor Maguire; Mr. J. J. Walsh, Mrs. de Valera, Mrs. MacEntee, Mrs. Sean T. Kelly, Mrs. Ryan, Mrs. Little, Mrs. Cathal Brugha, Rory Brugha, Judge C. Wyse Power, B.L.; Miss N. Wyse Power, Art O'Connor, B.L.; Prof. R. M. Butler, Gen. E. O'Duffy, Sean Brady, T.D.; Mr. and Mrs. J. J. O'Hara, Mr. M. A. Corrigan, Chief State Solicitor; Mr. W. P. Corrigan, Mr. P. A. Corrigan, Senator Miss M. Pearse, Mrs. Cotter, Miss M. Cotter, Frank Cotter, Mr. and Mrs. Liam Paul, Mme. Gonne McBride, Messrs. Sean MacBride, B.L., E. Cooney, T.D., Frank Gallagher, Countess Plunkett, Mrs. E. Ceannt, Dr. and Mrs. P. MacCarvill, Dr. Humphreys, T.D., Senator Sean O'Donovan and Mrs. O'Donovan, Mr. and

Confraternity members of the parishes assembled in the Cathedral Church and marched to await the arrival of

The Cathedral procession was the one chosen for the arrangement. As if in recognition of the honor of the people of St. John's, wherever they had worked, the streets through the city to the Cathedral would be

MAIN

Along the main street of St. John Street and painted in red and white and brightly colored between them. For the occasion Papal flags and Irish flags were flown.

In many houses the first floor had been decorated with garlands and sashes and an altar cloth of the Sacred Heart or of the Little Flower was just inside.

At street corners the processional route was marked with loving care, and the houses in the street were usually the most beautiful. The altar was a beautiful altar cloth made by the street, and a banner of Rheims Cathedral was prominent during the procession. The altar surmounted the garden, well packed with choice flowers.

O'Connell Street and across the street banners inscribed with

The procession began at 10 p.m., the men assembled in Place, just beyond the cathedral, in by their Confraternities sections themselves in alphabetical order. There were about 5,000, and in the Garryowen side of the Cathedral banner of the Holy Spirit about 3,000.

TWO

The parish was accompanied by two bands to accompany St. John's Band and

The Blessed Sacrament was carried to the Cathedral by