

narrow band, double plaited. At the ht passementerie; large buttons, made the sleeve, which was made with re-tom of the skirt had five rows of very bands put on in garlands.
 es, the point d'Espagne is, perhaps, the nament. A complete dress may be ob-kirt, body, and sleeves. Now that ball excessively fairy-like, it is a great diange trimmings upon them with good tulle, gauze, or, above all, in lace, for ay when placed upon such light, va-tions.
 tulle and ruches of crape or tarlatane res, and flowers are placed in the midtulle.

dresses were made with tunica or over-hers are made entirely of bouillonnes of leau of double tulle quilled trims the first d above this a drapery of tulle, or lace, se-bands. A second skirt, also of tulle,
 ; it is double, and relieved by bouquets bows.

ing toilette worn lately at a ball was very
 The skirt was of double tulle drapery, over rt of double bouillonnes of bright rose-e; at intervals, the rose-coloured tulle in the midst of which were placed bows silver stars. Another row was crossed alle, but instead of bows bunches of white head-dress was of marabout feathers; in a large antique cameo set round with bouquet of white feathers, and a plait of upon which was a wheat-ear of diamonds; air had black velvet with diamonds, and her bouquet.

l style of placing diamonds on black velvet splendid effect; their brilliancy is enhanced plexion is less tried. Thus fastened on as a necklace or head-dress, they make ful ornaments. One lady at a ball had of black velvet covered with diamonds, nic of English lace over a mauve taffetas bands up the sides of the skirt; two similar e body and sleeves.

of evening coiffure is not only extremely it equally becoming. Feathers, flowers, ons, lace, and precious stones, are all used.
 imes, several of these materials are found d-dress.

ps are also very pretty, as they no longer he old-fashioned cap, but rather a head-e form is round, with a thick ruche of tulle, with flowers or bows of ribbon or velvet.
 a black violette forms all the cap; it is a pointe, and a single flower—white, red, or rding to the complexion of the wearer—he bandcaux. This style is very simple —that is to say, the full round, or classical are no longer worn. Diadems, pouffs, bou-hers, and plaits of gold or velvet, replace The great quantity of curls now worn do of full wreaths.

ittle variety in bonnets this month; black nmed with white or red feathers, are stil
 ; the trimming becomes increasingly vo-and the feathers, instead of forming a tuft now frequently reach to the curtain. White ts are come into fashion. The Empress wore er day, trimmed inside and out with brier ey are mostly trimmed with marabout ither white or coloured; they are, however, ngue with white.

At the Roman Catholic Church, Booterstown, Thomas D.
 Yourell, Esq., of Dublin, and Ballymacarney House, county
 Meath, to Mary Jane, daughter of Bartholomew Delany, Esq., of Annfield House.
 At St. George's, Hanover-square, London, the Hon. Leopold
 W. H. Powys, son of the late and brother to the present Lord Lilford, to the Lady Mary Acheson, daughter of the Earl of Gosford.

At Yetminster, the Rev. George Hayton, Rector of Niton,
 Isle of Wight, to Ellen Louisa, daughter of the late Major James Chadwick, of Chetnole, Dorset.

At St. Luke's Church, Chelsea, Arthur Brett, Esq., 2nd Dragon Guards, son of Charles Curtis Brett, Esq., late of the 12th Royal Lancers, to Georgina, daughter of the late Hugh Hannay, Esq., R.N.

At Upton Church, Cheshire, the Rev. J. J. Moss, to Louisa Mary Anne, daughter of Lieutenant-General the Hon. Sir Edward Cust.

At Southgate, London, Lieutenant Richard Bradshaw, R.N., to Emma Loveday, daughter of the late Isaac Walker, Esq., of Arno's-grove, Southgate.

At Plymouth, John Crichton, son of Colonel Harry Bulteel
 Harris, of Radford, to Emily Frederica, daughter of George Hans Blake, Esq., of Mutley, Plymouth.

At St. Stephen's Church, Paddington, T. B. Grant, Esq., of Calcutta, to Catherine Gwonnapp, daughter of the late Col.
 J. G. Hume, Bombay Army.

At Sidlow, near Reigate, the Rev. Charles Irvine Wimberley to Frederica, daughter of the late Lieutenant-Colonel Arabin, Royal Artillery.

DEATHS.

Out off in the prime of life, to the deep regret of her family and numerous friends, at Castle Grey, on the 4th inst., Annie Matilda, the beloved wife of Edmund Langly Hunt, Esq., aged 28.

March 3rd, in Sexton-street, after a few hours' illness, Mrs.
 J. H. Mulcahy, of serous apoplexy.

Yesterday, at his residence, Military-road, John Clare, Esq., Collector of Inland Revenue for this city and district, a gentleman whose short connexion with Limerick in the discharge of his official duties afforded much satisfaction.

On Sunday morning, 2nd instant, at 19, Johnson-street, Clonmel, aged 68 years, Margaret, relict of the late Nicholas Corbett, Esq., of Abington, county Limerick.

On Sunday last, at Brown-street, Patrick, the beloved child of Mr. Thomas O'Brien, aged 4 years, and 8 months.

On the 27th ult., aged 34, Lionel John, third son of Lionel John Fleming, Esq., of New Court, in the county Cork.

At Macroom, county Cork, Margaret, relict of the late Cornelius Duggan, Esq.

At Vermont, county Galway, James Blake, Esq., aged 72 years.

At Mallow, the Rev. Justin Canon M'Carthy, P.P.
 At the Convent of Mercy, Bantry, Miss Fanny Murphy, daughter of the late Nicholas Murphy, Esq., of Cork.

At Millfield, Cork, Maryanne, wife of Thos. Dawson, Esq.
 The Rev. Dr. Price, Master of the Waterford School.

At the Bedford Hotel, Brighton, suddenly, Barcroft H.
 Carroll, Esq., of Cork.

At Brookville, co. Kildare, Henry, son of H. Mather, Esq.
 At Donnybrook, Thomas Wilson, Naval Cadet, H.M.S.
 Exmouth, son of Mr. Alderman Wilson.

At Bray, county Wicklow, Edward John O'Carroll, late of the Irish College, Rome, son of Mr. Patrick O'Carroll.

At Sandymount, Dublin, John C. Gregg, Esq., solicitor.
 At Bath, Thomas Dominick, son of the late Walter Lambert, Esq., of Grey Close, county Galway.

At Clifton, the Rev. James Spencer Knox, Rector of Killcro-han and Maghera, Vicar-General of the diocese of Derry, son of the late Hon. and Right Rev. William Knox, Lord Bishop of Derry and Raphoe.

At Dean's-yard, Westminster, Edward Stillingfleet Cayley, Esq., M.P. for the North Riding of Yorkshire.

At Tavistock-square, London, Mary Anne, relict of the late Thomas James, Esq., Bencher of Gray's Inn.

At Barton Fields, Canterbury, Vice-Admiral Bentham.
 Lieutenant-Colonel John Fraser L. Baddeley, Royal Artillery, Assistant-Superintendent Royal Small Arms Factory, Enfield Lock.

At Nice, the Rev. George Thomas Marsh, of Sutton Benger, North Wilts.
 At Titchwell Rectory, Norfolk, Jean Hamilton, wife of the Rev. Edward Stocker, and daughter of Sir Archibald Dunbar, of Northfield, Bart.
 At Eaton-square, London, Thomas Hayley Rose, Esq., formerly of the Office of Woods and Forests.
 At Devonshire-road, Upper Holloway, London, Lucy, wife of Captain Michael Kirby.
 At Balnacilly House, Perthshire, Caroline, daughter of the late Colonel Alexander Cumming, Bengal Cavalry.
 At Oxford-square, London, Adam Hilton, Esq., of the Stock Exchange.

Range Setters in Ireland, and and practical skill in the Rang favour him with their orders may supplied with good Ranges wh M'Sherry and Son, on moderate teed to work well. A large and Ranges are now ready for inspec merly held by Mr. Abell in Mick Place, not two minutes walk M'Sherry takes this opportunity late Mr. Abell never had a P Kitchen Ranges.

Horticultural Buildings heated hot water. M'Sherry's warm a the London Exhibition, in 1851 covered, and can be erected at a heating public and private Buil
 All orders sent to M. M'Sher
 Windmill Street, Limerick, sh tended to.

N.B.—A large supply of beal kept on hands; Ranges repaired
 March 4

March 4

Flour Mill to be
FIRST-CLASS Water
 with Two Iron Water
 40-horse power, condensing Pair of French Stones, two Screens, and all necessary large trade. The rents receive perty in connexion with the profit rent of over one hundred ing head rent and taxes.
 Apply to L. B. A., care of and Sons, 21, Lower Sackville
 P.S.—Advertiser would eit Partner.

To be L
FOR 21 years, from the 25th
 Dwelling-house, extensive Lands of CURRAGHBRID of Captain Bury, situate in County of Limerick, and wi
 Adare Railway Station. Th
 1r. 14p. English Statute Mea adapted for Dairy and Tills Collina, Shouuhate, Adare, wi lands. Proposals will berecei given by RICHARD WARREN, place, Queenstown.

THE LIVERPOOL and LIFE INSURANCE
PROGRESS SINCE

Year	Fire Premiums	Life Premiums
	£
1851	54,305
1856	222,279
1861	360,130	1

Fire and Life Losses paid by pany, since its establishm end of 1861.

1, DALE-STREET,
 20, 21, POULTR
 AND 97, GEORGE'S-ST

R. L.
AGENTS