Obituaries

The death of Mrs. May Doherty, formerly of Domestan Offrien, toological the seasons of the complex of of the compl

Racing Figure

Splendid Record

AN interesting account of the Little Company of Mary in Limerick, familiarly known as the Blue Nuns, appears in the current issue of "Irish Nursing News," journal of the Irish Guild of Catholic Nurses: It is from the talented pen of Miss M. M. Culhane, Nursing hane is a Co. Limerick lady, being a daughter of the late E. J. Culhane, Rathkeale, and niece of the late William Phelan, Newcastle West, both sterling and active nationalists in their day. In addition to being highly competent in the great profession to which she belongs, she is an accomplished writer with a fine literary taste and turn. Here is her article in full on the Blue Nuns:

Limerick City can justly be too, is the Mother House of the late produced of its St. John's Hospital, Little Gompany. The present welcomed the new product of its St. John's Hospital, Little Gompany. The present welcomed the new product of its St. John's Hospital, Little Gompany. The present welcomed the new product of its St. John's Hospital, Little Gompany. The present welcomed the new product of its St. John's Hospital, Little Gompany. The present welcomed the new product of its St. John's Hospital, Little Gompany. The present welcomed the new product of its St. John's Hospital, Little Gompany. The present welcomed the new product of its St. John's Hospital, Little Gompany. The present welcomed the new product of its St. John's Hospital, Little Gompany. The present welcomed the new product of its St. John's Hospital, Little Gompany. The present welcomed the new product of the flate of the flate of the hospital with the Minister, and would compare very which shelters behind that noble Mother General came there a few the manual arbitration and under the very careful in her yeins, she must be very lated account of the lixed with the marriage ban and arbitration must be present to the present welcomed the new yeins and the present welcomed the n human and loving in the years when she tended her Divine Babe; that heart which was broken broken Body.

After a short while in Limerick, the Little Company opened the beautiful mansion, Milford House, as a convalescent home under the guidance and direction of the Sacred Heart. This property, once owned by non-Catholic merchants in Limerick, stands high over the Shannon at Castletroy, about three miles east of the city. The house is well worth a visit. Here one can see a magnificent hall of pak, beautiful grounds, and a community is well worth a visit. Here one can see a magnificent hall of pak, beautiful grounds, and a community happy in looking after many who are not ill enough to be in hospital, yet not well enough for the hard road of life. You will find there, too, one finds the happiest part of any community life, the Novitlate, the nursery of postulants and novices. Never have I seen a happier lott, all going about the various duties in house and garden; all being prepared to serve wherever God might lead them—to Fort Elizabeth in South Africa; to Sallsbury in Rhodesia; to Dublin, Fermoy, for others to follow after, those that from the hospital, St. Bridgets, is whose friendly ways made one feel one of the most popular nursing a very much finer person, even homes in Leinster. All these chouses of the clicky served of from the art will be the path homes in Leinster. All these chouses of the clicky served of from the private hospital, St. Bridgets, is whose friendly ways made one feel one of the most popular nursing a very much finer person, even though only serving God from the further and clicky. Here, our world.

ANNUAL MEETING

benefit scheme. It was a great boom to them and would compare very favourably with that initiated by the Government.

The Quarterly Bulletin dealt with the marriage ban and arbitration question.

PENSIONED TEACHERS.

Disappointment was expressed at the niggardly award made to the pensioned teachers and of the spread-over nature of the award.

The outgoing Chairman, Mr. Sean A. Waish, Cratloe, was thanked for the very efficient and courteous way in which he conducted the business of the branch for the past two years.

Mr. Waishe suitably replied.

NOMINATIONS FUR C.E.C.

The following nominations were made for C.E.C.—President, Mr. H. F. McCune-Reid, Belfast, Finance Committee Mr. H. Buckmans, Dublin. City. Vice. President, Mr. H. F. McCune-Reid, Belfast, Finance Committee Mr. of Thomas Scannell, Foynes, District Representative, Mr. P. O'Tiordan, Banogue.

OFFICERS ELECTED.

The following officers were elected.—Chairman, Mr. Thomas Scallen, N.T. P.C., Leamys N.S., that Convent, Hon Secretary, Miss Scallen, N.T. P.C., Leamys N.S., that Convent, Hon Secretary, Miss Scallen, N.T. P.C., Leamys N.S., that Convent, Hon Secretary, Miss Scallen, N.T. P.C., Leamys N.S., that Convent, Hon Secretary, Miss Scallen, N.T. P.C., Leamys N.S., that Convent, Hon Secretary, Miss Scallen, N.T. P.C., Leamys N.S., that Convent, Hon Secretary, Miss Scallen, N.T. P.C., Leamys N.S., that Convent and Mr. D. Greaney were to represent the branch at the annual dinner of Limerick Trades and Labour Council, at the Glentworth Hotel, on February 7th.

MOTOR CYCLING NOTES

There will be a general meeting of the Limerick and District Motor-Cycle Club next Wednesday, 11th. inst. in Fox's Hotel, at 8 p.m. The purpose of the meeting will be to discuss the terms of the proposed affiliation with the Limerick Motor Club.

As this is a matter which pro-foundly affects every member of the Club, a full attendance is de-

The first open M/C event of the season, the Winter Trial, will be held on Sunday, 15th February, in the Castietroy-Ballysimon area. It will be interesting to see how our local men fare against stiff outside opposition on that day.

Details of the event may be had from the Secretary, Limerick Motor-Club, "Dunbrack," Revington Park, Limerick.

TO JEWELLERY Latest Continental distinctive designs just received at TODD'S (Limerick).

Story Of The Blue BRANCH, INT.O. Nuns and Their Splendid Record

and turn. Here is her article in full on the Blue Nuns:

Limerick City can justly be too, is the Mother House of the proud of its St. John's Hospital. Little Company. The present which shelters behind that noble Mother General came there a few weldific. St. John's Cathedral, years ago from Lewisham Sydney, This hospital has grown by leaps and bounds under the very careful coustody of a Community which came to Limerick in 1888 from England and to-day takes its place with the finest in this place with the finest in this country. A recent visit made one conder and praise the beauty of it, which is evident in every-corner of the hospital. The Little Company of Mary are to be congratulated on deverything in St. John's, This Little Company, which has grown so big in recent years from home for all those lucky or Traveller was very much imvisited on deverything in St. John's, This Little Company so big in recent years from home for all those lucky in stalled there. Several people counted it a great privilege, and even what one calls The Cool Customer or Traveller was very much imvisitely fine the roots so well and truly planted in Limerick are now becoming as well known in Dublin as in Limerick. Someone will and might ask why are the members of fins Community often called the "Biue Sisters." The answer is a simple one. It is because the veil worn in choir and in public is linedaded and the stalled the special provided and the policy of the stalled the special provided a home from home for all those lucky in stalled there. Several people counted the stalled there. Se