STREET TRADING IN LIMERICK

Complaint From a Resident

DEAR MR EDITOR—Is not there some Act of Parliament which provides that boys of 14 and under are not allowed to trade in the streets of cities after the hour of 9 o'clock p m ? If such an Act exists could any of your readers tell me why it is not in force in Limerick? Here night after night—" in the deep waist and middle of the night" in fact—scores of boys are to be met with, engaged in street trading.
