

spring, on the gland.

the number of the forthcoming

Airey, K.C.B., his duties as the forces there. t, having been med the com- Aldershot on been approved Dragoons, with The shape has per in make than shortened, and is e bottom of the ad the ornaments een strengthened ilation has been ve been rivetted ir removal when

Chief.—“W. C.” ons of trust filled Palmerston: “It was for a short lief of the British I think that the r Commander-in- short time, and h until the Duke

THE RANKS—The o less than eight are as follows:— itman, from the Military Train; ks, from a depot Foot; Serjeant- 5th Foot, to be int-Major Joseph egiment; Colour he 76th Foot, to Serjeant-Major , Rifle Brigade. sday's Gazette:— liam Lay to be r Thomas Miller, lingmaster, 14th notaur is ordered the purpose of of guncarriages e Admiralty for s. The competi- d honour are Cap- er Majesty's ship enial, Woolwich, mmander Robert Dunn, Esq., Gortin House, county Londonderry.

At Nackington, Wm. Paterson, Captain and Adjutant of the Royal Military College, Sandhurst, to Elizabeth, daughter of Captain Hilton, of Nackington House, Canterbury.

On the 5th October, at Halfway-Tree Church, Jamaica, by the Rev. Charles Fyfe, assisted by the Rev. Dr. Bradshaw, James Bannatyne Blair, Esq., 2nd Battalion 6th Royal Regt., to Helen Josephine, only surviving daughter of the late Hon. George Geddes, Member of the Legislative Council of Jamaica.

At Nynee Tal, India, Dr. S. E. Maunsell, 79th Regt., son of the Rev. Thomas Maunsell, of Fintona, county Tyrone, to Madeline Cecilia, daughter of John Burnie Dickson, Inspector-General of Hospitals, retired list of H.M.'s Bengal Army.

In London, Major George Weld, Bengal Staff Corps, to Eleanor Letitia, widow of the late James Field, Esq., Akyab, and daughter of the late John George Crowe, Esq., Calcutta.

At Rochester, Lieut. J. A. Sweny, Royal Marines Light Infantry, to Effield Eleanor Willmott, widow of the late Wm. Willmott, Esq., Sherborne, Dorset, and daughter of Major Messiter, 69th Regt.

At Worlingham, Lawrence, son of Frederick Harrison, Esq., of Lancaster gate, Hyde-park, to Mary Anna, daughter of the Rev. Sir Charles Clarke, Bart., of Worlingham Hall, Suffolk.

At Landour, India, Arthur Oldham, Lieutenant Bengal Army, son of Joseph Oldham, Esq., Oakfield, Chudleigh, Devon, to Matilda Helen, third daughter of the late Robert Hodges, Esq.

DEATHS.

On Monday, the 13th inst., at her mother's residence, No. 9, Newenham-street, after a lingering illness, to the deep grief of her bereaved family and friends, Anne, eldest daughter of the late Albert Henry Lee, Esq., J.P., of Barna, county Tipperary. “Blessed are the dead which die in the Lord from henceforth. Yea, saith the Spirit, that they may rest from their labours, and their works do follow them.”

At Seaforde, county Down, Elizabeth, daughter of the Rev. Thomas Drew, D.D.

At Skibbereen, co Cork, Ralph Fuller, Esq., solicitor.

At Kinsale, Benjamin C. Barter, Esq.

At Grenville-quay, Cork, Julia, wife of Mr. Wm. Penney.

At Cove-street, Cork, Miss Mary Anne O'Driscoll.

At Carrigaline, co. Cork, Mary, wife of Mr. James David Barry.

At Kilkenny, Catherine, wife of Dr. O'Reilly, of that city.

At Cashel, Mr. George Thompson.

At Elm Park, Drumcondra, co. Dublin, Thomas Hutton, Esq., D.L.

At Summer-hill, Dublin, Emily Jane, daughter of the late John Crawford, Esq., of Hollymount, county Louth.

At Stephen's-green, Dublin, John Harris, Esq.

At Conyngham-road, Dublin, Anne, wife of J. Connolly, Esq., senior, Parsonstown.

At Summer-hill, Dublin, Christina Mary, daughter of Jas. Kearns, Esq.

At Monkstown, Dublin, Miss Alice Carleton L'Estrange, daughter of Christopher Carleton, Esq.

At Johnstown-Kennedy, Lady Augusta Kennedy.

At Grattan-street, Belfast, Mary, widow of the late Mr. Daniel Allen.

At Cauning-street-place, Belfast, Mary Anne, wife of Mr. Henry Bean.

At Bleich Strasse, Dusseldorf, Mary, relict of the late Thos. J. Mulvany, Esq., R.H.A., of Dublin.

At Edensor, Henry George Cavendish, late of the 68th Regt. son of Lord George Cavendish.

At Clifford-street, London, Wm. T. Squire, Esq., late Capt. 2nd Life Guards.

James Benyon Lloyd Phillips, late of the 12th Regt., and Captain in the Royal Cardigan Militia.

At Banchory Lodge, Lieut-Col. Wm. Burnett Ramsay, D.L. for the county of Kincardine

Catherine Bean Bowen, daughter of the late Rear-Admiral James Bowen, of Ilfracombe, Devon.

At Hoti Murdan, near Peshawur, Lieut. Arthur Manaton Ommanney, of the Corps of Guides, son of Major-General Ommanney, late Royal Engineers.

At New York, Minna, wife of Stephen Wilson, and daughter of the late Thomas Smart Greensward, Master of the Court of Chancery, Jamaica.

Nov. 14.

Great Unreserved Auction OF IN-CALF HEIFERS, MISSERS, WEANLING CALVES, Fat Sheep and Lambs, AT MARESCLOSE, Adjoining the Town of Charleville, County Cork.

SUBSCRIBER has been favoured with by Richard Daly, Esq., to hold his annual Auction, at Maresclose, adjoining Charleville,

On TUESDAY, 19th DECEMBER

Of upwards of

160 HEAD of CATTLE and SHEEP

Consisting of 50 Prime In-calf Heifers, which for quality cannot be excelled.

10 Missers, highly finished.

20 Weanling Calves, very handsome

40 Fat Sheep.

40 Lambs (20 of which are in Wool)

Maresclose is within two minutes' walk of Charleville.

The Calves will be Sold in Lots of Five and Lambs in Pens of Ten each.

Approved Bills at three or four Months taken.

Further terms at Sale. To commence one o'clock sharp, after the arrivals of trains from Cork and Dublin.

HENRY GILBERT

Kilnallock, November 14, 1865.

The Mystery of Life

EVERY One should possess it—Pe a new home, or Emigrating, in valuable to those wishing their cha illustrated, and shewing what part in th life you can excel in, and to what prin piness or misfortune your lot is cast.

Address in own hand-writing, enclosed for reply, WILTON LAVINGTON Aungier Street, Dublin.

November 9

To Farmers, Butchers, De

HENRY DUCKWORTH & Co. Meat Salesmen, 26, Newgate don, beg respectfully to solicit Consign or Dead Stock, and hope by studying their employers, and quick returns, to port and confidence which has been pla all parts of England and Scotland f years.

All kinds of Stock slaughtered on the November 4.