LIMERICK CHRONICLE, SATURDAY EVENING AUGU

there of Science.—We are glad to notice g those who won distinctions at the examinar recently held at the above named college, ame of Mr Joseph Peacock of this city. Mr ooke has obtained the degree of Bachelor of neering, and has secured a very high place ong list of candidates. The same gentlemas taken the degree of B.A. in the Royal ersity. We sincerely congratulate Mr ooke on his well-earned honours.

Mary's Cathedral—Tenth Sunday after ty.—Matins, 11.30 o'clock—Venite, Turton Chants, Turle in D ma and mi; Service, eum and Jubilate, Sir Henry Smart, Mus. Hymn. No. 306; Communion Service, tin F; Offertory Sentences, Barnby; cher, the Precentor. Evensong 3.30 o'clock ants, Brown, Smith, and Jekyl; Service, ifficat and Nunc Dimttis, Sir Henry Smart; Anthem, "Wherewithal Shall a Young?" Ps. cxix-9, Sir John Elvey; Preacher; the; Hymn after Sermon, No. 314. Week-day ces at 11 a.m. and 3 p.m. daily. Litany on needay and Friday.

v MR LANGBRIDGE'S NEW VOLUME.—We tattention to the advertisement relating to Langbridge's new volume entitled "A red Fiddle," which consists of a selection of s from the rev. gentleman's versatile pentreaders are doubtless aware, the book has very favourably reviewed by several leading sals, including the Morning Post, and no words are necessary from us to tend it to the public. Humour and pathos most happily associated with the work, a is one of high literary merit, and will, we ertain, enjoy a very large circulation. It is had from Messrs G. McKern and Sons, re-street.

HING AT CASTLECONNELL.—Fishing for the week has been fairly good, considering the runreasonable weather we have had, and the runreasonable weather in some of the pools. The runs fishery, 24th, one peal, 61bs; 25th, one, 27th, one, 31bs; 28th, one, 51bs, and on itage fishery, 24th, one peal, 91bs; 25th, 31bs; 27th, two, 5 and 61bs. Mr E. G. s, and Mr P. W. Church, on Newgarden y, 27th, ore peal, 41bs; 28th, two, 5 and Mr H. Hadden, on Prospect fishery, 30th, eeal, 41, 61, 4 and 51bs. General Cooke, on water, 31st, two, 31 and 31lbs. Rev K. Best, on Woodlands fishery, 24th, one peal, Colonel Mallock, on same fishery, 25th, one 71bs. Trout fishing good. The trout got of a large size and in splendid condition—

LULAE CLOTHING.—We direct our readers' ion to the advertisement re cellular my which has been appearing in our columns a last few months. We have been informed the sale of this admirable material has industrially. The peculiar properties of y excluding heat and cold, which it poshave recommended it to the general publication was, and also as garments for all of outdoor pastimes. Those who have once throw aside for ever all other species of lothing, as proved by the testimonials have appeared from time to time in another of our paper from Mr A. W. Shaw Rev

FUNERAL OF DR M. V. BOJRKE

The funeral of the late lamented Dr M. V. Bourke whose demise we recorded in our last issue, took place this morning. It was large and representative, and ne doubt, would have been more so had the hour of the funeral been generally known. Representatives of all classes and creeds attended to pay a last mark of respect to the memory of a gentleman who, for over forty years, was in active practice in the city of limerick, and who during that long space of time won the best wishes of all with whom he came in contact in city and county, whether professionally or otherwise. He belonged to a very old Limerick family, and was widely known and respected. The remains were interred at the New Cemetery, and wreaths were sent by numurous friends.

The chief mourners were—Mr James Bourke, eldestson; Mr Wm F. O'Grady, J.P., and Surgeon-Major John Brodie, cousins of the deceased; Messrs Cantillon.

Messrs Cantillon.

The following, amongst others, were present:—Father O'Keeffe, S.J.; Father O'Grady, C.C.; Dr Hallinan, C.C.; Father Head, and Father Burn, Mungret College; L'Abbe L'heretier, Tervoe; Dr Gelston, Dr Malone, Dr T. Gelston, Dr Enright, Dr Barry, Dr O'Sullivan, Dr Graham, Dr Myles, Dr O'Mara, Dr Holmes, Dr Shanahan, Dr Fogerty, Dr Riordan; Lord Clarina, Mr James Frost, J.P.; Mr J. G. Barry, J.P.; Mr H. Blackall, solr.; Mr Robert Hunt, J.P.; Mr H. Blackall, solr.; Mr Robert Hunt, J.P.; Mr J. J. F. Browne, C.E.; Mr R. J. Kane, Mr J. Nash, J.P.; Mr R. Nash, solr.; Mr J. DeC. M'Donnell, Mr R. Harris, Mr T. A. Furnell, Mr P. E. Bourke, High Sheriff; Mr W. F. M'Namara, Shannon Foundry, Mr W. F. O'Grady, J.P.; Mr John Ellard, solicitor; Sir James Spaight, D.L.; Hon Gaston Monsell, D.L.; Mr F. A. O'Keeffe, M.P.; Mr Wm. Lloyd, Mr Alphonsus O'Keeffe, Alderman J. Counihan, J.P.; Mr S. Hastings, solicitor; Mr F. W. McCarthy, Mr S. McCarthy, Mr Delaney, Quinlan-street; Mr Kelly, ex-Governor City Gaol; Mr Wilkinson, George-street; Mr J. P. Hall, solicitor; Mr James Harris, Mr Z. Myles, J.P.; Mr T. H. Kenny, solicitor; Mr Michael O'Gorman, Mr Joseph Stewart, George-street; Mr T. A. O'Brien, Mr E. O'Callaghan, Mr F. Cantillon, Mr James Doyle, solicitor; Mr Hartigan, George Hotel; Mr Ellis, Clare-street; Mr James Flynn, Cruise's Hotel; Mr Ryan, C.E., Hartstonge-street; Mr J. Morton, Manager Provincial Bank of Ireland; Mr J. Shine, J.P.; Mr William Spillane, J.P.; Mr Wm S. Cox, C.E.; Mr J. Welply, Mr John Hardiman, Mr James Quin, J.P.; Mr John Guinane, J.P.; Mr M. Pope Hayes. The following were amongst those who sent carriages—The Most Rev Dr O'Dwer, Lord Clarina, Lord Emly, Mr T. E. O'Brien, D.L., South Hill; Mr Jas Harris, Mr R. M'Donnell, J.P.; Mr J. R. Tinsly, J.P.; Mr W. S. Cox, C.E.; Col Massey, Mr James Quin, J.P.; Dr T. Gelston, Dr Holmes, Mr Cantillon, the City High Sheriff, Mr John Ellard, etc.

The funeral arrangements were carried out by Messrs M'Carthy and Son, George street.

AN APPEAL FOR THE AUTHOR OF FIRISH PEDIGREES.

The following appears in the Cork papers over the names of Sir Henry Bellingham, Bart and Mr J J Murphy. The cause was advocated in our columns last year.

"In recognition of the invaluable services of Mr John O'Hart, of Kilkee, County Clare (late of Ringsend Dublin) in chiefdetics Link D. THE NATIONAL FEDER.

The usual weekly meeting of branch of the National Federation evening in the Town Hall. The Mr. P. E. Bourke, presided, and as present were—Messrs, John Clummiah Anglim, T.C.; John Creagh, Patrick—Boland, James Mayne, McSweeney, T.C.; Thomas Halpin, P. McMahon, Thomas Donnellar Kirby, A. Curtin, James Moloney, M'Namara, James Healy, Michael Jc John Connolly, Patrick Noonan, J. Hayes, P. Keane, John Punch, W. E.

The Chairman, on rising to addre was received with much applause. had undoubtedly reason to be deepl their cause which had been making wards and onwards all the time, he might say say, been crowned by final, definite, and irrevocable, o whom he ventured to say the In over the world placed the utmo reliance (applause). True it was majority of them the feelings of and O'Brien (applause) did not com or a revelation. True it was that t them, and knew the honesty of they esponsed, knew that they under any circumstances, depart pronouncement which they pronouncement which they they left the shores of American referred to the statements made by to them with regard to the attitud he taken up by Messrs Dillon a their release, the speaker said for l not care to do more than exchan tions with the meeting on the primade by these two men, and he sincerely hoped that it would give honest men who supported Mr Par were in their hundreds and thousa to their ranks. There were otl hoped would never come into the] (applause).

Mr John Creagh proposed—"
members of the National Federa congratulate Messrs Dillon and O' release from Balfour's dungeon, a gratulating them we hail with de nouncements that they delivered tunate crisis now agitating the need not say that they heard wi
pleasure the pronouncements m Dillon and O'Brien—pronounceme settle the question once and for were some whom they could not into the National ranks, but to the
and there were many amongst disagreed with them—they would a back again to the fold, welcome National ranks, and we, your receive you "(applause).

Mr Clune, in seconding the resc anticipation of the release of the men, on that night week he ventuise that the National Federation another great victory to record (tion. He was glad to say that to prophesy had been amply fulfill the first opportunity after their give to the Irish people at hon the sentiments and opinions when with regard to the unfortunate or come upon the country. They ma political pronouncements and the ments, he was glad to say we will