DEATH OF A COMPOSITOR.—His numerous colleagues and friends in this city deeply regret the death which occurred on Sunday last of Mr Thomas Bourke, a compositor in the firm of Messrs M'Kern & Sons, and a former member of the staff of this journal. Deceased had been in delicate health for some time past, and leaves a widow and large family to mourn his loss. The funeral which took place to-day for the New Cemetery, was largely attended.

DANCE AT THE TOWN HALL.—The Excelsior Quadrille Class gave the concluding dance of the season at the Town Hall on Saturday night, and it was most successful. The spacious room was tastefully decorated with mirrors and fancy drapery, and the arrangements generally were carried out in a very creditable manner by Messrs E. F. MacInerney, M. Lawlor, J. Barry, and J. Guinan. There were some forty couple present.
