

the beer duty would hit the sman, and, with an early General spect, this is a consideration which will it fail to appeal to a Government which be asking for votes.

Meat Supply.

question of the meat supply has been for weeks past a topic for discussion in urban acts throughout the Kingdom, and here in rick it has taken its place as befitting its rtance in the estimation of householders in districts. Limiting the supply from abroad, e growth of population in the United States the restrictions on exports from Canada and Argentine are doing, has necessarily up to the present situation, and issue is whether householders shall inue to pay the present high prices, or ther the restrictions on the imports of foreign e are to be removed. For the prices of beef mutton have undoubtedly gone up, not ed, so much in Limerick—a penny the pound—perhaps, as in other s, but all the same a subject matter for pater-ilias' grumbling. With him it is altogether a uniary grievance, a passing one it may be, but he producers of stock it looms up in the pro-ions of a great national question. Not long e most people thought that the restrictions in adian and Argentine exports were the interest of the Irish cattle trade, the letter of such an expert as Mr. Henry plin, published within the last few days rly shows that the restrictions in question eorn Great Britain, just as much as they do ountry. His statement makes it undoubtedly ar that the permission to allow the importation Canadian and South American cattle to these ands would possibly mean the destruction of our tive herds. That would be a greater evil by ag ways than the present temporary hardship, and view of such a possibility householders will pluck e heart of grace to bear the ills they have ntendedly.

DEATH OF LONDON'S OLDEST DOCTOR.

The death is announced of London's oldest loctor, Dr. John Cooper, at South Hampstead, at he age of 98. He began practising seventy-two years ago.

At the meeting of the North Tipperary Agricultural Committee a resolution was adopted approving of the suggested measures contained in one and two of the Department's scheme for the purpose of stamping out abuses in the Irish butter trade, and calling on the members of Parliament to support the measure when brought before Parliament.

A number of directors and officials of the Great Southern and Western Railway recently visited Killaloe, the party including Sir, William Goulding (Chairman of the Company), Messrs. C.
 H. Dent, E. A. Neale, R. Crawford, J. F. Millar, etc., and it is said locally that they were very favourably impressed with the lake district, and its possibilities of further development as a holiday resort.

There were a number of excursions on Sunday to various centres, among the rest to Dungarvan, for which special facilities to travel were offered. The morning was threatening, but the weather held up to the evening for those having an outing, and they made up large parties to different places. The excursions to Limerick in connection with the Thomond Feis were very largely patronised.
