

Mr. John Sheahan, to Miss Mary Monoy, teacher of the National School of that town.

At the Church of St. Andrew, Westland-row, Dublin, P. W. Hackett, Esq., 9th Regt., son of Sir William Hackett, of Lotamore, Cork, to Mary, daughter of J. J. Murphy, Esq., Master in Chancery.

In the Union Chapel, Lower Abbey-street, Dublin, Peter Keillor, Esq., of Ryebrook Hall, Leixlip, to Isabella, daughter of Wm. Reid, Esq., of Old Merrion House, Merrion, county Dublin.

In St. Patrick's Roman Catholic Church, Lisburn, Daniel Kinney, Esq., Leaney Cottage, Ballymoney, to Ellen, daughter of Daniel M'Lernan, Esq., Lisburn.

At St. Luke's, Cheltenham, Thomas W. Hilton, Esq., late Captain Indian Army, to Anna Maria, daughter of the late Rev. Edmund Cronyn, Odogh Glebe, county Kilkenny.

At Woolwich, P. W. Rolston, Esq., Surgeon, Royal Navy, to Cecilia Fancourt, daughter of G. B. Michell, Esq., of Charlton, Kent.

At Christ Church, Bayswater, John C. Bowring, Esq., of Larkbeare, South Devon, son of Sir John Bowring, to Isabella, daughter of Calvert Toulmin, Esq., of Inverness-terrace, Kensington-gardens, London.

At Halifax, Nova Scotia, Isaac Colquhoun, Esq., Lieutenant 17th Regiment, son of Samuel Colquhoun, Esq., of Newtown House, county Tyrone, to Emeline Sophia, daughter of F. T. Coxworthy, Esq., Deputy Commissary General, residing in Dublin.

At Hong Kong, Edwin Litchfield, Esq., Deputy Assistant Commissary General, to Marian Jackson, daughter of the Hon. John Smale, H.M.'s Attorney-General for Hong Kong.

DEATHS.

On yesterday morning, at her residence in Roche's-street, after three days' illness, to the inexpressible grief of an affectionate husband, endearing children, and a large circle of sorrowing relatives and friends, Mrs. Jane Miller, the beloved wife of Richard Miller, Esq., merchant. The sad bereavement which this unexpected event has occasioned in the domestic circle is truly lamentable. Mrs. Miller was a lady of endearing manners, kind, affectionate, and amiable, an attentive mother, and a loving wife. She bore with true Christian-patience the ordeal through which she had to pass, conscious of death, which she met peacefully and resigned. She departed life rejoicing in Jesus, sustained by the blessed hope of an entrance ministered to her abundantly into the everlasting kingdom of her Lord and Saviour Jesus Christ. This afternoon, at six o'clock, the remains of the above lamented lady were interred in St. Munchin's Church, followed to the grave by a large concourse of sorrowing friends.

At Cratloe, on the 1st inst., to the regret of his family and a numerous circle of friends, Mr. Maurice Power, an old and respectable inhabitant.

At Fethard, county Tipperary, Patrick Fitzgerald, Esq.

At the Bank House, Castle-street, Dublin, Grace Eliza, wife of Benjamin B. Hannan, Esq.

At Park House, county Meath, Jane Florence Richardson, daughter of Alexander K. Handy, Esq.

At Kildalkey House, county Meath, Christopher Shannon, Esq.

At Townview, Monaghan, John S. M'Dowell, Esq., M.D.

At Malta, Isaac Wilson, Esq., barrister-at-law, formerly of Dublin.

At Thames Ditton, the Hon. Oliver W. M. Lambart, retired Commander R.N., son of the late Earl of Cavan.

At Rutland-gate, London, John Gorham Maitland, Esq., barrister-at-law, of Lincoln's-inn, and Secretary to the Civil Service Commission.

At Bedford, Middlesex, Elizabeth, widow of Lieut.-Colonel George Engleheart, Bengal Army.

At Cheltenham, in his 94th year, the Rev. William Powell, B.D., Canon of Llandaff, and vicar of Abergavenny.

At Great Addington Rectory, Northamptonshire, the Rev. Castle Pelham Clay, rector.

At Lemore, Herefordshire, the Rev. George Coke, rector of Piddle Hinton, Dorset.

At Camden-town, London, Henrietta Augusta, relict of Lieut.-Colonel Charles Wright.

rich Axminster carpets, rugs to match, ornate chimney glass in French mounted gilt frame, chaise in green utrecht velvet, a select quantity of sterling silver, pair of sauce boats richly chased, spoons, forks, ladles, &c., quantity of very superior furniture, modern and useful and in fine condition, good family outsize car, Dublin make, fly car by Phayer, ladies saddle and a quantity of other effects removed from the country for convenience of Sale.

John Bernal

Will offer a quantity of valuable effects for Unreserved Auction, as above. The Engravings comprise a very beautiful Pair of Impressions, The Waterloo and Peninsula Heroes, Proofs before Letters ;

The Marriage and Coronation of Her Majesty, Proof on India Paper ; The Trial of Stafford, proof before Letters ; Just Caught, after Landseer ; The Due All Hallow's Eve ; Eos, the Travellers ; Impending Mate and Mated ; Village Festival ; Sunday Morning ; Belisarius ; all in fine condition, and in rich maple frames.

Some handsome modern Furniture, including centre table, cabinet, with plate glass reflector, walnut priedieu, Elizabethan and pair of Drawing-room Chairs, elegant service of imitation Dresden dinner ware, some well selected plated ware, liqueur cruets, toast rack, egg stand, candlesticks, salvers, bread baskets, moderate lamps, some very richly cut glass decanters, wines, tumblers, butter cooler, a few dozen ivory handled table and dessert knives, very superior Argentine forks, hot water jugs, tea trays, dishes, covers, &c., handsome house and office clocks, superior fittings off four bedrooms, culinary utensils, and variety of useful effects, full particulars of which next post.

JOHN BERNAL,
Auctioneer.

George's-Street,

The choice and valuable Engravings to be sold on this occasion are the genuine Property of Mr. STUDDART, of Newmarket-on-Fergus, who sells them in consequence of having changed his style of furniture. They may be seen next the Club House from this date.

May 2nd.

Guano ! Guano !!

60 TONS OF GUANO.

FOR SALE BY AUCTION,

To close an Account,

On SATURDAY NEXT, MAY 9th,

BY MR. BERNAL,

At his Sales' Rooms George-street, (next the Club House, Limerick),

About 60 Tons of Prime Guano,

In Lots to Suit the Buyers in attendance.

Samples may be seen from this date, and analysed, by Professor Cameron, M.D., M.R.I.A., the Office of

JOHN BERNAL,

Auctioneer, 23, George-street.

May 2. Sale at 12 o'clock sharp.