WATCH HANGER.

A very handy way of keeping your watch safe when indoors is to place a hook on the wall behind your bed and hanging your watch on this. It is safer there than under the pillow and is easily accessible for checking whether you have overslept or not!

GUNDOG TRIALS

Dogs from many parts of the country took part in the gundog working tests at Farnham, Cavan, under the auspices of the All-Ireland Utility Gun Dog Club. In the advance test first prize was won by an Irish Water Spaniel dog belonging to Mr. J. Danford, Gas Works, Limerick.

THE LIMERICK 1916 MONUMENT

The three men who will figure on the 1916 Monument on the Sarsfield Bridge, Limerick:—Tom Clarke (centre), who underwent 16 years imprisonment in British penal gaols for his activities in the Irish Republican Brotherhood, and who was made a Freeman of the City of Limerick in 1899; Néd Daly (left) and Con Colbert (right). The figure of Tom Clarke is already in position, and the final group is being cast in bronze. As a result of world conditions obtaining since the last war the Committee in charge found themselves faced with a deficit of £450, but generous friends have now reduced this to £220, and the Committee feel assured that this balance will be forthcoming from those who deem the memory of the men of 1916 worthy of perpetuation. It is hoped to have the monument completed in the course of the next two months.
