

er Miss Franklin:—For q., 15s; Miss Franklin's ce's collection, £8 1s 6d; 3s; for Jews' Society—£3 9s.

ankfully acknowledges the the parishioners of Kilt and Aghadoe, per the T.C.D., on behalf of the of the Gospel in foreign

MEN'S SOCIETY.

London, Feb. 18, 1864.
I received your circular, and feel one pound towards the Society, which I have re-hand you. The advance-ment Society, with which I had g connected, will ever be a faithfully yours,

WILLIAM O'HARA.
William-street, Limerick.

The Rev. Father Harbison, ler, Limerick, has been gregations in the parish

LIMERICK CHRONICLE.

Colooney-street, Feb. 20.
I lately circulated paper allow tion of the public whether he law for a man to fill his ound to call on the Clerk of m for doing so, even though self to do it? I am led to equence of the discourtesy e officer of the court who , whilst I stood near Capt. iting to sign it for me, o, although the delay was and ink to sign the decla- Petty Sessions clerk to say much on the magistrates as to answer Captain Gavin a n whom I have the honour at all times found him with o attend that bench most the citizens of Limerick, them the highest respect. honour to be, Mr. Editor,
Yours respectfully

EDWARD KING.

has been pleased to approve for Henry Caulfield, to be a county of Armagh, in the m, Earl of Charlemont,

New Zealand, by the Rev. F. Loyde, A.B., Frederick Norton, Esq., surgeon, to Mary Emily, daughter of the late Rev. Thos. B. Brady, A.M., Rector of Tomgranie, county Clare.

At St. Nicholas's Church, Cork, Wm. Eyre Smith, Esq., son of Wm. Turven Smith, Esq., of Willmount, co. Galway, to Harriette Anne, daughter of the Rev. Donellan Bolling-broke Seymour, M.A.

In Dublin, Wm. E. Burdge, Esq., Provincial Bank, Kilrush, to Susanna Mary Anne, daughter of the late Wm. M. Phillips, Esq., Trillick, and Dublin.

At Dungannon, county Tyrone, Benjamin Glasgow, Esq., Drapersfield, Cookstown, to Wilhelmina, daughter of Richard Pike, Esq., Beechgrove, Dungannon.

At Clones, Mr. Gerald Aikens, of Clones, merchant, to Annie Sykes, daughter of Henry Browne, Esq., Clones.

At Castlereagh, James O'Farrell, Esq., Distillery Mills, to Eliza, daughter of John M'Dermott, Esq., same place.

Major Richard Pittman, Royal Horse Artillery, to Caroline Ellen, daughter of Robert Thrupp, Esq., of Brighton.

DEATHS.

At her residence, Osmington-terrace, Thomond-gate, on the 17th inst., to the deep regret of her family and numerous friends, Mary, the beloved wife of Patrick Muleshy, Esq., Alderman.

On the 12th inst., at Falmore Hall, Dundalk, to the inexpressible grief of his family and a wide circle of friends and acquaintances, John James Bigger, Esq., late High-Sheriff of the County Armagh, and for many years J.P. and Grand Juror of the counties of Louth and Armagh.

At Hull, on the 18th inst., Henry, youngest son of Thomas Colgan, Esq., aged 8 months.

At Jail-street, Ennis, Matthew Kenny, Esq., aged 84 years.

At Richmond-hill, Cork, Mr. Henry O'Callaghan, Classical teacher at St. Vincent's Seminary.

In Dublin, James R. Ballantyne, Esq., LL.D., late Principal of the Benares College, India.

At Island-bridge House, near Dublin, Elizabeth, wife of Francis Moore Scott, Esq.

At Upper Pembroke-street, Dublin, George Thunder, Esq.

At Carlisle-terrace, Malahide, Adeline Marian, wife of D. T. Tracey, Esq.

At Fethard Castle, county Wexford, Ellen, daughter of the late Captain Perkins, of Newtown, Waterford.

At Tunduff, Queen's County, Thomas Bernard, son of the late James Wm. Cusack, Esq., M.D., Dublin.

At Castlereagh, Elizabeth, wife of Charles Arabin, Esq., R.M.

At Mount Pottinger, Belfast, F. Ritchie, Esq.

Mr. James Dawson, of Bandon, medical student, Queen's College, Belfast.

At Prince's-gardens, London, Gertrude Marianne, wife of the Hon. Mr. Justice Keating.

At Bayswater, London, Charlotte, daughter of the late Deputy Commissary-General Arthur.

At the Royal Hospital, Greenwich, Eliza Louisa, widow of Major J. P. Sweny, King's Dragoon Guards.

At Tredillion Park, Monmouthshire, Melville Gore, son of the late Sir Thomas Turton, Bart.

At Trafalgar-lawn, near Barnstaple, Mary, wife of Admiral Hole.

At Hastings, Charlotte Elizabeth, daughter of Lieut. G. C. Kerr, R.N.

At Melville-eroscent, London, Colonel James Stewart, late of the 7th Madras N.I.

At Clifton-gardens, London, Captain Charles Edward Mainwaring, R.A., Professor of Artillery, Staff College, Sandhurst.

At Yeovilton House, Hants, Lucinde, wife of Admiral Thomas Edward Symonds.

At Brighton, John Smith Graham, Esq., late Paymaster of Greenwich Out Pensions.

At Exeter, Colonel John Morgan Ley, late Madras Horse Artillery.

At New Zealand, Lieut.-Colonel Austen, 2nd Battalion 14th Regiment.

On the 28th Nov. at Melbourne, of apoplexy, David Knott, Esq., eldest son of the late Capt. Knott, of Tevanagh House, near Boyle, county Roscommon, Ireland.

JOHN KENNEDY, the C lands.

Castleconnell

ON LE
CONTAINING 2 Parl
Bedrooms, Basement
and Back Kitchen, Pantry,
for three Horses, Cook-h
Narrow Slip of Garden to Apply to WILLIAM BRU
Miltown, Dublin.

February 13.

Castlec

TO be Let for such term
WORLDS' END
Fifty-six Statute Acres of
under grass, with the excep
suited for a crop of potatoe Offices and Gate-lodge, are ing no outlay. Michael Co
the lands.

Apply to FRANCIS GF broke Road, Dublin, or ESQ., 55, George's-street, I

TO BE UNFUR

THE Lodgings, No. 48,
as occupied for many
Ellis, R.N., they are in p
the modern improvements,
family.

Application to
EDWABD HA
SCOTTISH UNION I
48, GEORGE'S-STR
22nd January, 1864.

TO BE FROM THE 25TH C

For such terms as n
PART OF THE CAPPANNA
Containing about 64 Acr
in G

THERE is a good Dw
Farm; the Land i
sheltered and watered; a

Cappanagearagh is situa
8 miles from Ennis, 4 fr
from the market and post-4

Application to be made
DAVENPORT, Esq., Castle
Limerick; or, to Mr. I street, Limerick.

N.B.—Immediate posses
February 13.