MARTY FELDMAN

SPECIAL

MARTY FELDMAN, a regular member of the "At Last the 1948 Show" team, will be featured in "Marty at Montreux" at 10.20 p.m. on Sunday, November 9, on RTE television.

Regarded by many as one of the finest of the current small-screen funnyman, Marty Feldman rejoices in a wild, off-beat sense of humour which is equally at home both in the contemporary scene and in some of his mad excursions into the hilarious slapstick of an earlier day.

Feldman, the catalyst of comedy, is the star of this film which was nominated for the main Golden Rose accolade, in its category, at the Famous Montreux Festival.

KILLALOE TO BE

FEATURED IN "RADHARC"

KILLALOE, Co. Clare, will be featured in the RTE television programme, "Radharc," on Sunday, November 9, at 6.55 p.m.

St. Paul once described the love of money as being the root of all evil, but even he had to organise church collections from time to time. This programme, "The Root of All Evil," visits a typical rural diocese, Killaloe, to find out just what happens to the money that people contribute to the church, whether in the form of Sunday collections, planned giving or parish dues for the support of the clergy.

Fr. Peter Lemass will be commentator, and the script is by Fr. Desmond Ferris. The direction is by Fr. Desmond McCarthy.

MULLINGAR SINGER FOR

"LIKE NOW"

JOE DOLAN, the Mullingar singer who is still enjoying such enormous success internationally with his hit recording, "Make Me an Island," will be one of the guest singers on the RTE programme, "Like Now," on Saturday, November 8, at 6.50 p.m.

Dee-jay, Danny Hughes will also be introducing Grannies Intentions, The Arrows and special guest group, Sons and Lovers.

Newcomer Jimmy Greeley will spin the latest releases and the dance sequences will be choreographed by Alice Dalgarno.
