

Limerick's top beat group, "The Reform," will be appearing on Telefis Eireann's "Like Now" show to-night.

A HAPPY NEW YEAR

A NNA MCGOLDRICK, strong favourite for the 1969 Variety Club of Great Britain award, already is celebrating a happy new year! For in 1970, the golden voiced girl from Castleblayney, will be appearing no less than 17 times on television.

On January 3, Anna starts her TV spectaculars and will be resident for 10 weeks on the Tommy James UTV series. In March, Tyne Tees Television have signed her for four special colour shows; there will be an ITV networked star spot in April and Radio Telefis Eireann have contracted her for two "Late Late" spots in January.

And in between housewife Anna will be doing live cabaret shows all over Britain and there is a possibility of a week's residency in a Paris night spot.

were huge sellers in this country and in Britain. Next year there will be a first album from Anna by EMI and will be distributed world-wide.

Besides her singing talents she now is broadening her scope stagewise by introducing a little bit of comedy to her act. In the Northern club circuit in England she is on the top of the biggest attractions. She is being coached by London choreographer Keith Nesbitt. In the New Year, Anna plans to work a lot more in Ireland.
