

George Bernard Shaw
"alation" in 1912 he

London's concert

folk star, Loudon
III plays a big concert on Wednesday,
in Leisureland.

of the recent Lis-
folk Festival is no
the West of Ireland,
and in Galway some
ago in the Jesuit

visit to the West is Irish tour which
ork, Dublin and Bel-
rt group will be the
t Ennis duo,
d. For the Leisure-
Mike Hanrahan
Maura O'Connell
ll be joined by two
of Stockton's Wing,
nrahan (Mandolin)
e Lennon (fiddle).

tals
iplan.
e to rent
costs

TTTTTTTTT
27 COLOUR TV
3 YEARS
£10.50
monthly

showroom.

ntals
the rest
imerick.

manager Miss Aileen Banks is wardrobe mistress.

Rev. Fr. Bates told a recent press conference that they were anxious to encourage as many young people as possible to attend "My Fair Lady."

He said that over the last few years they had noticed there was a falling off in interest by the younger generation - "now we must get them back."

Yes, "My Fair Lady" is well worth waiting for.

"Durham Town," "If I were A Rich Man," "Dirty Old Town,"
"The Last Farewell," "New World In The Morning," "Mexican Whistler," "I Believe," "I Don't Believe In If Anymore," "Morning Has Broken," "What a Wonderful World," etc.

Roger Whittaker has a style all of his own. You queued to see him on stage at the Savoy now you can have all his top notchers on one album.

Meet the members of Limerick's newest group -
The Last Resort. Schoolfriends Eoin Devereaux, "Chunk" Maloney, Eoin Campbell, John Browne and others got together recently and decided that there was room in Limerick for a group concentrating on new wave music. It is their ambition to play in colleges and schools. "The Last Resort" are at present engaged in rehearsals and hope to make their stage debut shortly.

Success

PAID a visit to Poldar
week, only to find that it had closed one hour earlier, 10.30, in fact. Speaks for the popularity of this

Mr. Paddy Ryan, n
Two Mile Inn, informs such is the response to I from the public that I seriously considering e-
their facilities.

It is difficult to envisage they can improve the
which is one of the be-land.

Brendan Dunne
pleased with the press at the Two M

Mr. Brendan Dun-
ne took control of the Twm recently, is delighted entire operation.

The Dual Tavern, I
was going very well an-particularly welcomed b-this year who enjoyed
variety of entertain-offer. The good new week-long entertain-
run throughout the a-
winter.

The Monday nig-
ramme, in which TV
ing machines, etc., ar-
given away, is mos-
Host for the evening
O'Grady. The hotel
introduce big bands
night's is also reaping

Mr. Dunne, conse-
need for a middle c-
restaurant in the Lin-
has devised a nprehensive menu in-
House where the
more than reasonab-
on offer is first class substantial meal car-
less than a fl-
Dunne/Ryan comb-
winner.