THE ENTERTAINMENT WORLD

BY E.C.

River Room

Disco dancing continues at the River Room in Newcastle West, this Friday and Sunday, with Jo-Anne's Disco Spectacular.

A special attraction this Sunday will be Jo-Anne's Tequila Sunrise — a band which had a most successful tour of Mexico's top night spots a few years ago. They have since become one of the most popular combinations on the Irish showband circuit.

● Limerick group Ultimate Treason have released the first independent L.P. cassette entitled "Alone" — the first tape of its kind to be released in the city.

● Ultimate Treason is basically a one-man-band, as leader Barry Warner writes all the songs and plays many of the instruments. There are ten songs on the cassette, hence the reason for calling it an L.P. Cassette.

● All the songs are backed electronically with synthesizers giving a completely '80's dimension to the work.

● "Alone" is now in the shops and well worth a listen.

Michael McNamara

● RTE 2 DJ Mike McNamara will be in the Community Centre in Kilfinane this Saturday night, and a great night is anticipated.

● Michael will be in Patrickswell GAA Pavilion this Sunday, a venue where disco dancing is proving to be a decided attraction.

● This Sunday's promotion will be a "Hayes for Mayor" presentation.

Ballyhea

● The Sportsman's Arms in Ballyhea near Charleville has an attractive double bill for this Saturday.

● The show will commence at 8.30 sharp and run for three hours.

● Topping the bill will be Two's Company — direct from their US successes; plus from London, Country Mac.

Paul alone

The multi-talented Paul makes a welcome revisit to The Mulcair Inn in Green this Saturday.
