

CONN-TACTS

● Abbeyfeale's Flamingo Club in Abbeyfeale switches to Friday this week with a disco featuring RTE 2 DJ Ronan Collins. It's dancing to a live band this Sunday with a special Engagement of TWEED.

● Dancing to live bands continues at The Two Mile Inn where the attractions this week-end will be The Kaye Twins on Sunday; followed on Tuesday by the superstar of Irish showbusiness—the one and only Joe Dolan.

● I am informed that Close Encounters at Cruise's Hotel ended its run on Sunday last.

● LINDA MARTIN has returned from her highly successful trip to Gran Canaria where she topped the bill at the Beach Club in San Agustin.

● Linda and her band (Chips) will be on stage in the Two Mile Inn on Wednesdays December 5, 12 and 19.

Bite Back

● Limerick songwriter and musician Barry Warner, better known as "Ultimate Treason," has released what he tells me is his third (and final) L.P. cassette, "Bite Back."

● This is just eighteen months since his initial release, "Alone," which along with "Do It," received much critical acclaim.

● Barry is now based in Dublin and is at present negotiating with various record companies with a view to a possible record release in the New Year.

● RTE 2 DJ's have been very enthusiastic about Barry's material and he has been receiving quite a lot of national air play.

● The new cassette goes on sale on December 10, and will be available exclusive at Stardiscs at £4.49. Ask for "Bite Back," and you will have a really interesting twelve track release which has a wider appeal than Barry's previous work, which found favour with a more limited audience.
