Kathy Durkin

● KATHY DURKIN is quite new to the Irish music circuit, but stage performance and presentation have been part of her life since childhood. Kathy Durkin, formerly Kathy Leddy from Butlersbridge, comes from a musical background. Her father, Eugene Leddy, had a dance/celli band on the road for over twenty years.

● At the age of twenty-two she left her native town for America, touring the Irish circuit on a small scale. Some time later she returned to Ireland and, influenced by her father, began singing traditional songs. This was followed by a tour of Germany with a group called 'Trannish'. Joining a local group later, she toured the cabaret circuit in Ireland.

● She made her debut with the single "Ring Down The Curtain". This was followed by the release of her current album, "MEMORIES". She has been influenced a great deal by Charlie McGettigan, who also features on the album. Two tracks from the album, "Leaving Enniskillen" and "My Home In Old Breffni", were composed by Charlie McGettigan. "Gwebarra Bay", the title track from her first EP, received extensive airplay followed by rave reviews and it reached No. 14 in the Irish Charts.

● Kathy will be in Bulgaden Castle Lounge this Saturday, and will be in The Two Mile Inn, Limerick, on Tuesday, November 8.

Abbeyfeale

● Two of Ireland's foremost attractions — STOCKTON'S WING and LUV BUG — have been specially engaged to grace the stage of Flamingo's Niteclub in Abbeyfeale this October Bank Holiday Weekend.

● This singing star is one of Ireland's foremost entertainers who has the happy knack of making every performance something akin to a family party.

- It should be a most enjoyable night.
- Just as we go to press, I hear that on Wednesday next this venue will have a great Halloween Show. The popular Vantones will present an all-star cast including Sean O Se, Con Connelly, Kathleen McAuliffe, the Patrickswell Set Dancers, etc.
