Musicians to tune up for Trocaire

Trocaire and Comhaltas Ceoltoiri Eireann are asking traditional Irish musicians from Limerick to tune up their instruments and organise a 'seisiun' in support of Trad for Trocaire week.

"Over the last five years, trad musicians across Limerick have embraced Trad for Trocaire, by coming together and sharing their talent and music to reach out to people living in great need," explained Eamonn Meehan of Trocaire.

Trad for Trocaire week runs from September 26 to October 3.

To get involved visit trocaire.org/trad or call Lisa Byrne in Trocaire on 01 5053228.

Fox Jaw gear up for second album launch and Irish tour

LIMERICK'S own Fox Jaw are to release their much anticipated second album next week.

The brooding quintet release Ghost's Parade on Friday, September 19, preceded by single Falling Debris, out this Friday.

The Limerick band will play a home town show to mark the album's release in Dolan's Warehouse on Saturday, September 27, with gigs in The Grand Social Dublin, the Harbour Inn, Bray and De Barras, Clonakilty in the run up to that show and more to follow.

Ghost's Parade is the reformed Fox Jaw's first since a re-jigging of the band's line-up and addition of new members Kieran J. Sims and Manolis Sheehan, and follows the 2011 release The Devil In Music.

Fox Jaw: Shane Serrano, Morgan Nolan, Ronan Mitchell, Kieran J. Sims and Manolis Sheehan

After a year in hiding, writing, recording and honing their craft, Fox Jaw are ready to unleash the album on the world, and we can tell you its been worth the wait.

See www.foxjaw.ie for full details.

Manchester night to take over Dolan's

MANCHESTER Night returns to Dolan's on Friday, September 19.

Featuring the noted Smiths/Morrissey tribute band These Charming Men, there will also be a DJ set from Morrissey expert Dr. Eoin Devereux, UL sociology lecturer.

"These Charming Men played in Hollywood earlier this year to over 3,000 enthusiastic Latino Morrissey fans," he tells us.

"Expect lots of Manchester sounds on the night ranging from The Fall, Joy Division, New Order, George Formby and the Ting Tings. So get your quiffs, gladioli and 1980s t-shirts to the ready," he adds.
