ROCK 'N' ROLL

Journey back to the '50s and '60s with The Kadillacs

The Kadillacs play McMahon's Bar this Sunday March 22 from 5pm

THE Kadillacs are a Limerick based rock 'n' roll band formed in 2013 and made up of five well known, experienced musicians. They came together to fill a void, bringing something that has been missing from the city for many years.

The Kadillacs performed during City Of Culture festivities to several hundred happy punters and created a great buzz in St. John's Square and St John's Pavillion.

John Daly, speaking to Limerick Post on behalf of the band, stated, "There are many people out there who love this music and cannot go anywhere to hear it played live". Starting a monthly residency from this Sunday March 22, they will play at McMahon's Bar aka The Office Bar on Carr Street, by Milk Market, from 5pm to 7pm. John added:

"We hope we give all you rock 'n' rollers another chance to relive this fantastic era which was so popular in Limerick during the '50s and '60s."

The Kadillacs play McMahon's Bar next Sunday from 5pm.
