PROCEEDINGS 2002

The success of our previous overseas trips led to such a high level of interest that we organised two tours of Northern Spain this year. Such is our President’s sense of dedication that he forced himself to remain on after leading the first tour to ensure that the second group did not feel deprived of both his intellectual and spiritual ministrations. Both groups expressed total satisfaction with all aspects of the trip and the special focus on Teresa of Avila was much appreciated.

Our weekend outings were well supported and enjoyable also. The failure to gain admission to Tullynally castle last year was remedied on the Longford trip and the Goldsmith focus sent people back to re-read their Deseried Village with renewed interest. West Cork certainly prepared us more than adequately for any future visit to India in monsoon season but at least we came to appreciate the hardships endured by O’Sullivan Beare and his followers.

Speaking of the Himalayas we were treated to a superb audio-visual presentation of that fascinating region at the AGM by Cian O’Carroll whose life as a globetrotting consultant shows the potential of ‘retirement’. Through the kindness of the Lord Abbot and community we had our annual lunch [or is it luncheon?] at Glenstal which was followed by an entertaining talk on the history of the abbey, now celebrating its 75th anniversary. We are particularly grateful to Br Anthony Keane, OSB our longstanding member, who stepped into the breach at the last moment due to the sudden illness of Dr Brian Murphy, OSB

It has been mentioned that we seem to have a somewhat morbid interest in graveyards but we remain unrepentant about including these fascinating places for historical exegesis on our programme and hope to complete our visits to the remaining Limerick city ones during 2003. The neglected state of so many of the city’s historic cemeteries is a major concern and the lack of interest, not alone in conserving them, but even in keeping them in a dignified manner reflects poorly on us as a community.
