

formed into an athenæum or mechanics' instifor Irish literature. The third, 26 feet high, to library for works on the history of Ireland and resources.

the 6th battalion of the Military Train will, it is understood, be removed from the Curragh to England in the ensuing spring, and will be replaced by the battalion from Woolwich.

the two companies of the 49th Foot which were sent to Tralee in aid of the civil power during the rebellion returned to Dublin to-day.

Major-General Bloomfield's period of staff service having expired, he will be replaced in the command of the troops of the Cork district by Major General Henry Bates, at present commanding the 2nd Infantry Regiment at Aldershot, about the 1st proximo.

A notification has been issued at the Curragh Camp that the A battery of the Royal Horse Artillery, commanded by Lieut-Colonel Tupper, at present stationed at Newbridge barracks, will be removed from that station to Woolwich, about the 1st April, and will undergo a course of instruction with the Armstrong guns at Woolwich, previous to embarking for India during the present summer.

The officer commanding the 11th Hussars at Portland Barracks, Dublin, has received an intimation to the effect that the 11th will leave Ireland about May for England, and will probably be stationed for the winter at York.

The Field Marshal Commanding-in-Chief has approved of an exchange of batteries between Lieut.
Colonel Sandeman, of A brigade, R.H.A., and Lieut.
Colonel W. Murdock, of B brigade, R.H.A.

LIMERICK PROTESTANT YOUNG MEN'S ASSOCIATION
A Lecture will be delivered on to-morrow evening, eight o'clock in the Protestant Orphan Hall, by Rev. J. White, A.M., Assistant Minister of St. Peter's Church, Limerick. Subject:—"Idolatry."
The Rev. J. F. Gregg thankfully acknowledges the contribution of £5 from a Protestant, which shall be applied to the erection of a monument.

The Lord Bishop of Cork purposes holding an oration in Christ Church, Cork, on Sunday, March

Letters dimissory should be lodged with the parish's chaplain on or before Saturday, March 4.
The Dean of Emly preached before the Lord Lieutenant and Lady Wodehouse at the Chapel Royal, on Friday.

The funeral of the late Rev. Alexander M. Pollock was numerously attended in Dublin on Saturday. In the cortege were his Grace the Archbishop, the Lord Archbishop, Baron Fitzgerald, the Archdeacon of Down, &c.

There was a large meeting of the parishioners of Cas-nock, Clonsilla, and Mulheppard parishes held at the Schoolhouse, Castleknock, on Saturday—Hon.
Mr. Hamilton, Esq., M.P., in the chair—for the purpose of presenting an address and testimonial to Rev. J. D. Cooke, late curate of these parishes.
The testimonial consisted of a very handsome service plate of a beautiful design, together with an elegant purse, with the monogram and date in gold letters, containing fifty sovereigns.

MARRIAGES.

At Bansha, George Cole Baker, Esq., J.P., of Ballydavid, county Tipperary, to Marion Elizabeth, daughter of Hugh Baker, Esq., of Lisnacree.

At St. George's Church, Dublin, Unimore Newenham, son of Newenham E. E. Graydon, Esq., Summer-hill, Dublin, to Georgina Ricarda, youngest daughter of the late Richard George Brew, Esq., of Appievale, county Clare.

At St. Peter's Church, Dublin, Wm. Ruskell, Esq., Bank Cottage, Ovoca, county Wicklow, to Mary Anne, daughter of George Tuke, Esq., Castlemaesadam, Ovoca.

At Booterstown Church, county Dublin, J. Stokes, Esq., Northumberland-avenue, Kingstown, to Jane, daughter of the late Captain John Bateman, J.P., of Croydon, Surrey.

At St. James's Church, London, George De LaPoer Beresford, Esq., Captain Madras Staff Corps, son of the Rev. Geo.
De LaPoer Beresford, Fenagh, county Leitrim, to Hester, widow of the late Francis Fox, Esq., and daughter of the Rev. Robert Bury, of Carrigrenane, county Cork.

At St. Anne's Church, Westminster, Captain T. E. Lawes
Moore, R.N., F.R.S., late Governor of the Falkland Islands, to Eliza Maria, daughter of James Waghorn, Esq., formerly of the East India House.

At St. Mary's, Dover, Captain Henry George Elliott, Royal Marines Light Infantry, to Emily Frances, daughter of the late John Drummond, Esq., R.N., Inspector-General of Hospitals and Fleets.

At Keymer, Sussex, Captain J. W. Finch, M.A.M., son of Captain J. Wm. Finch, R.N., of Knight's-place, Penbury, Kent, to Elizabeth, daughter of W. Onions, Esq., of Brooklands, Keymer.

DEATHS.

On the 19th inst., at Prospect, Pallaskenry, to the inexpressible regret of an affectionate husband and sorrowing relatives, Mrs. Dudley O'Grady, of Ballymurt, sister of Captain Davenport, and daughter of the late Thomas E. Davenport, Esq., J.P. The deceased lady was humane and charitable, and her loss will be severely felt by the poor of the district,
to whose wants she at all times most liberally ministered, without distinction of religion.

On the 20th inst., at the residence of Mrs. Brady, Crescent, James Campbell Paterson, Esq., of this city—a young gentleman deeply and deservedly lamented for his many amiable qualities, and greatly beloved in the domestic circle. His end was peace.

On the 14th instant, at 3, Grosvenor-terrace, Birkenhead, Selina, youngest daughter of the late Alderman Andrew Watson, Esq., of this city.

At Parkgariffe, county Cork, Catherine, relict of the late David Cagney, Esq., of Cork.

At Ballintemple Hill, county Cork, Mr. James Beech.

At Willmount-terrace, Cork, Elizabeth, wife of Mr. Henry Morris.

At Kingstown, Matthew West, Esq., late of Treel House, county Longford.

At Holy Hill, county Tyrone, James Sinclair, Esq.

At Bellgrove, Glenavy, co. Antrim, Dalway Bell, Esq., M.D.

At Russell-place, Dublin, Sidney, wife of Thomas Radcliff, Esq.

At Eden-quay, Dublin, Anne, daughter of J. Devoy, Esq.

At Leinster-road, Dublin, Harriet Helen, daughter of Frederick Flint, Esq.

At Lower Dominick-street, Dublin, Edward Joseph, son of Mr. George J. Wells.

At Burlington-road, Dublin, Cordelia Helen, the infant daughter of John Ribton Garstin, Esq.

At Rome, Valentine O'Connor, eldest son of Valentine O'B.
O'Connor, Esq., of Dublin.

At The Albany, London, Admiral the Hon. H. A. Murray, son of the fifth Earl of Dunmore.

At St. Stephen's-terrace, Westbourne-park, London, Lady Pritzler, widow of the late Lieut.-General Sir Theophilus Pritzler, K.C.B.

At Gotham, Derbyshire, the Rev. Henry Maturin Finny, son of the Rev. T. H. C. Finny, county Cork.

At Albemarle Villas, Devonport, Vice-Admiral John Furneaux.

At Greenwich Hospital, Sir Wm. Cunningham Cavendish
Dalyell, Bart., of Binna, Lanlithgowshire, Captain R.N.

At Knole Park, Richard Wm. Chester Master, infant son of Colonel W. C. Master, C.B., 5th Fusiliers.

At Rome, Italy, Wm. Ramsay, Esq., son of the late Sir Wm. Ramsay, Bart., of Bann, and Professor of Humanity in the University of Glasgow.