

ents itself, in connection with the restoration of our Cathedral, to which he was so long officially attached. A tribute, so suited to his memory, and so pleasing to his many friends and admirers, only requires a commencement to ensure a fitting accomplishment.—Your obliged, &c.

A PARISHIONER OF St. MICHAEL'S.

February 8, 1861

Limerick and Fynes Railway Company.—Traffic for Week ending Friday, 1st February 1861.—Passengers, Parcels, &c. 76l. 14s. 11d; Goods and Cattle 38l. 17s. 6d; Total, 115l. 11s. 6d; Corresponding Week last year, 101l. 11s 6d.

George Massy Studdert, Esq. second son of George Studdert, Esq. of The Fort, Kilrush, is Gazetted to a Lieutenantancy in the 25th Regiment, on exchange from the 2nd West India Regiment with Lieutenant Evans.

The following have retired from the Army:—Lieut Charles W Paulet, 9th Light Dragoons; Serjeant Major Millward, 55th Foot; and Lieut Bolton, from the 58th.

The Gazette publishes two Royal warrants, both dated December last—one granting the Delhi prize money, and the second granting the Lucknow prize money, to the officers and men engaged, after one-twentieth part has been set aside for the chief officer in command.

A notice from the India Office, dated February 6th, announces that the prize money for Delhi and Lucknow is in the first instance, payable in India only, and that all applications on the subject must be addressed to the General Prize Company, Calcutta.

The Rev. W. N. Willis thankfully acknowledge for Protestant Orphans from following Associations, Tarbert, per Mrs Richard Fitzgerald, 37l. 0s 11d; Killeedy, per Miss Willis, 5l. 14s 6d; Casteconnell, per Rev. John Vere Benson, 38l. 5s 1d; Collected by Miss Elizabeth Elmes, 5l. 14s 6d; and Miss Susan Elmes, 2l. 0s 4d.

The Rev. William N. Willis thankfully acknowledge having received for Protestaat Orphan Society, 72l. 0s 6d. from Rathkeale Association, per Rev. Doctor Hassard; 27l. 10s. 6d. Rathmore Association, per Rev. William E. Massey; 11l. 12s. Gaibally Association per Rev. Henry A. Sadler; 17l. 10s. 0d. Croom Association, per Rev. Henry R. Bayley; a Protestant 1l. per Rev. B. Jacob; and 5s. from a Friend.

The Committee of Saint Mary's Temperance and Mortality Society gratefully acknowledge the following sums in aid of their society—Rev. John Brahan, P.P., Newcastle, 1l.; Very Rev. Dean Butler, P.P., St. Mary's 1l.; William S. O'Brien, per Very Rev. Dean Butler, 1l.; Messrs, Fitt and Sons, 17. Benjamin Journeaux, 5s.

The Rev. J B Meehan, P.P, Croagh, thankfully acknowledges 1l from Robert Ferguson, Esq. for the destitute poor of his parish.

The Nuns of the Good Shepherd gratefully acknowledge £1 from Thomas Macnamara, Esq. of Corbally, and 10s from James R. Brown, Esq. of Castle Troy, per Rev. M. O Connor; 1l from John Kelly, Esq., Perry Square, and for which donations they are exceedingly grateful.

the Bank, to Margaret, daughter of the late Mrs M. Harrison, Esq. of the Civil Service, to Jane Jacob, daughter of Major Candy, Bombay Army.

DEATHS.

Last night, at his residence, Blackwater, county Clare, to the deep sorrow of his family, and sincere regret of his numerous friends, Andrew Caswell, Esq. He was of kind manners and most affectionate disposition, an accomplished gentleman and scholar. To the laboring population of his district—to numbers of whom he has given for years constant employment—his loss will be irreparable, and to him the poor have to mourn a considerate and generous friend. His remains will be removed to the family burial place at Clonlara, on Monday next, at 10 o'clock a.m.

Yesterday, at his residence, William-street, in this city, at an advanced age, to the deep regret of his family and friends, Mr. William Russell, for many years connected with the choir of the Cathedral of Limerick, as bass singer, and nearly the last of the Coloony heroes. He was an affectionate husband, a kind parent, and sincere friend.

At Osmington-terrace, the wife of Mr James Harris, a lady very much regretted.

On the 1st instant, George Hodder, Esq. J.P. of Fountains-town, county Cork, aged 86 years. He was an upright gentleman, of strict integrity, and his death is very much regretted.

At Kinsale, George Digby Daut, Esq. late Lieutenant in the 97th Regiment.

At his residence, Rose Cottage, Ballinacorra, after a short illness, Mr John O'Shea.

On Friday evening, in Francis-street, after a short illness, Mr George Eyrehart, house painter, a severe loss to an afflicted family, who deplore his death.

At Brooklyn, New York, Mary Adelaide, wife of John Kempston, Esq. son of the former proprietor of the Newagh Guardian, and daughter of William B MacLaba, Esq. of London.

At Grenville-place, Cork, Harriet, relict of the late Harris Jeffrey, Esq. of Blackrock.

At Dunmanway, county Cork, Anne, widow of the late Mr John M'Auliffe, of Newmarket.

At Upper Baggot-street, Dublin, Mary, relict of the late Hugh O'Reilly, Esq.

At Stradbroke, county of Dublin, Alice Mary, daughter of Francis Codd, Esq.

At Ballycastle, county Antrim, Maria, wife of the Rev. Chas S Courtney.

At Bonnetwood Park, county Wicklow, John Gower, Esq.

At Mountcharles, Edward James, son of Professor Hodges M.D. Queen's College, Belfast.

At Newry, James Twigg, Esq. late Captain in her Majesty's 62d Regiment.

At Castleraghan Rectory, county Cavan, Gilbert, infant son of the Rev. Dr. Hogg.

At Angera, Franco, the Rev Father Myles Gaffney, S.J, formerly Dean of St. Patrick's College, Maynooth.

Letitia, relict of Colonel James Alexander Stuart, and daughter of the late Colonel Irvine, of Castle Irvine, county Fermanagh.

At Calcutta, Captain Francis J Eagar and Captain John J Eagar, both of her Majesty's Indian Army, sons of Captain Eagar, B.N. Jersey.

At Tottenham-park, near Marlborough, Mr G E Harcourt Vernon, late M.P. for Newark.

On his voyage from China to the Cape, Captain William Edmund Cater, 3d Buffs.

At Derby, Major Edward Appleton, Royal Marines.

At Llanstephan, Carmarthen, Captain William Richards, 54th Regt.

At sea, Major Duncan Trevor Grant, son of the late Dr. W L Grant, Bengal Medical Service.

At Great Portland-street, London, Major Richard George Grange, 5th Buffs Light Infantry.

At Hackney, Edward Bentley, Esq. M.D. formerly Physician to the City Dispensary, and to the City of London Hospital for Diseases of the Chest.

At Glasgow, Frederick Thomas, son of Dr. T Anderson, Professor of Chemistry in the University of Glasgow.

At Worcester, Charles Eustace Beauchamp, formerly Lieutenant Royal Artillery.

At St. John's, Sussex, Major Charles Bayntun, formerly of the 5th Dragoon Guards.

At Portishead, Somersetshire, Rachael, widow of Capt John Bowen, Royal Navy.

At Allyghur, India, Mary, wife of George Roe Boyce, Esq. M.A. Resident Engineer.