on last week at Castletroy Golf yor of Limerick, Alderman G. E. the massive Irish Professional Cup to the up and coming and r, Ernest Jones, of Carlow Golf was suc- ing, and over 55 competitors hit ian one. off the first tee, playing the first pectators of the 72 holes that would eventuays play ally decide the winner of the £100 for the first prize, leaving the remaining ich, the £400 to be divided down accord-in the ingly on the prize list.

ote the Everybody now knows that he Irish youthful Ernie Jones, of Carlow, Mr. K. eventually won the title, but when best or he led the field on the first day ampion- with 134, most critics thought in my that this unknown would crack up golf all on the final day and that the leading favourites, Bradshaw (6 shots behind) or Ryder Cup players, O'Connor from Bundoran and F.
Daly of Balmoral, would prove that tournament experience would show their ultimate advantage and put one of these players at the head of the list.

JONES HELD ON TO EARLY LEAD.

However, Jones was not to be outshone. Playing immaculate
