

Grace
Beauty

MODEL 4953.
Wasp-round in strong coutil 15 1/2
ins. deep. Elastic
in sides and top.
Heavily boned at back. Four suspenders. In tea-rose. Sizes 24-36
inches 10/6
O.S. 37-40 ins. 12/6

Corsetry is fitted with 'Twilgrip'
Suspenders.
The Wise Woman Knows they won't
Ladder Hose."

FIT IS MADE IN EIRE—
FULLY GUARANTEED.
ANNOCK
LTD.
LIMERICK

ANNOCK'S
WINTER WEAR
GIRLS' - -
OUTFITS
Winter Wear

GIRLS :
Blue Serge Frocks
and Costumes
Coats, Hats, Gym
Frocks, Underwear, Dressing
Gowns & Blazers,
etc

Late Mr. A. Roche

It is with deep regret we announce the death of Mr. Alphonsus Roche, 16 Clareview, Farranshone, which took place in St. John's Hospital on Monday morning, following a brief illness. He was youngest son of the late Mr. John Roche, Clontarf Place, and joined the clerical staff of the Municipal Gas Department at an early age. In the performance of his duties Mr. Roche was diligent and enterprising, which, together with marked ability, brought their recompense in steady promotion. On the resignation of the late Mr. Martin Fitzgerald, the office of secretary was abolished and the position of joint chief clerk substituted and divided between Mr. Roche and another official. Mr. Phons Roche had a charm of manner which made for him hosts of friends. He was courteous and affable, and a good husband and father, and in their great loss and sorrow his widow and family have the sincere sympathy of the citizens.

At this week's meeting of the Corporation, the Mayor (Ald. D Bourke, T.D.), proposed a vote of sympathy to the relatives of the late Mr Alphonsus Roche.

Ald. Bourke said that deceased had been employed in the Corporation Gas Department for nearly forty years. During that time he had earned the respect and esteem of all with whom he came in contact.

Mr J J Berkery, City Manager, associating himself with the vote of sympathy, said that during the short time he had been associated with Mr Roche, he found him a conscientious and unassuming official.

THE FUNERAL.

The funeral, which took place to Mount St. Lawrence Cemetery on Tuesday afternoon, was an impressive and fitting last tribute to an esteemed and popular citizen. Rev. W. Canon O'Dwyer, P.P., V.F., St. Munchin's, officiated at the graveside, and the other clergy present were Rev. E. McCarthy, C.C., St. Munchin's, and Rev. Father Moynihan, C.C., do.

The chief mourners were:—Mrs. N. Roche (widow); Mabel and Helen (daughters); Jim and Dick (sons); Mr and Mrs D. Enright, Mrs Lynskey, Mr and Mrs P. Monaghan (relatives).

Amongst the large attendance of general public were the Mayor (Alderman D. Bourke, T.D.) and the City Manager (Mr J. J. Berkery).

DEATH OF COLONEL THOMAS G. PEACOCKE

The death took place on Saturday, at his residence, Lumville House, Curragh, of Colonel Thomas G. Peacocke, manager of the Agha Khan's Sheshoon and Ballymanny studs. Colonel Peacocke, who was 72 years of age, took suddenly ill on Friday evening, and passed away late on Saturday night. Colonel Peacocke was a member of a well-known Limerick family. Entering the British Army Veterinary Service, he served for a considerable time in India.

For some years he acted as assistant manager to the late Sir Henry Greer at Sheshoon, and took over control on the death of the latter in 1934. Colonel Peacocke was well known as a show ring adjudicator, and acted in that capacity at the R.D.S. Horse Show.

The funeral took place from his residence, Lumville House, Curragh, to the cemetery at Droichead Nua.

The chief mourners were:—Mrs Peacocke (widow), Mr J J Peacocke, B.E (brother), Mrs J J Coogan (sister), and the following nephews and nieces: Messrs W and J Peacocke (Limerick), Mrs O'Hanrahan (Dalkey), Mrs MacDonagh (Limerick) Mrs Nix (Limerick), Miss M Peacocke (Limerick).

HOSPITAL ACCOMMODATION

BETWEEN COURSEL

("SUB ROSA.")

GAS.

It has been found necessary to increase the price of gas to city consumers as from the 1st prox. The enhanced cost of coal was bound to affect the commodity, and a five per cent increase is not unreasonable at this stage, but as hostilities are prolonged the citizens must be prepared to meet further advances. That is one of the penalties of a war in which Great Britain happens to be involved, although some of our wise-acres would have us believe that this country is virtually immune from price reactions. Self-delusion, pure and simple. We are still a long distance from the goal of self-sufficiency, as we shall see and feel before this war is over.

A POPULAR ATTRACTION.

Limerick Autumn Races will be held on the 5th October next, Thursday week. This fixture at the back-end of the season is always a popular attraction and one of the best meetings in the South. The entries aggregate 138, which shows how owners and trainers appreciate the efforts of the Committee in putting up substantial stakes. The Munster Chase of £300 should bring out a large field, and similarly with the other five events, valued at £100 each. Consequently tip-top racing is assured, and the enterprising Secretary, Mr. John Cahill, can be trusted to do the rest.

APPLICATIONS INVITED.

The City Manager, Mr J. J. Berkery, has invited applications for the 120 houses now bordering on completion at Janesboro', probably the healthiest and most secluded part of the city. The houses are roomy and supplied with those appurtenances which minimise labour in the kitchen, where the woman of the house spends most of her time. The rent—12/6 a week—is inclusive of rates, and nobody, the Manager says, should apply whose income would not make the letting economical. That, after all, is only sound commonsense, the basis of economics.

REASONABLE REQUEST.

When the recently formed local branch of the Irish Junior Aviation Club applied to the City Vocational Education Committee for the use of a room in the Technical Institute to hold a weekly committee meeting, Mr P. F. Quinlan, B.C., said aeronautics should be encouraged. In that he expressed the view of all progressive-minded people; but, of course, there are some who would never move with the times. They prefer to keep to the old rut, and had their way. Banconi's coach or some other anachronism would be with us. One member of the Committee blurted out: "We cannot allow them a room for committee meetings. They have got an apartment for lectures."

LIMERICK ARTIST.

Mr Sean Keating, R.H.A., the renowned Irish artist, has won the five hundred dollars offered by the promoters of the Art and Industry Section of the World's Fair, New York, for his painting "The Race of the Gael." As everybody knows, Mr. Keating is a native of this city. He is son of the late Mr Joseph Keating, Henry Street, and nephew of the late Mr. Dan Hannan, who was for a term a member of the Corporation. Mr Keating received his early education in art at the School of Art in the Athenaeum. He is very fond of rural life, his favourite haunt while resident here being roaming through Capanty woods with dog and gun.

BUILDING LAND.

By now all the borough boundary must be required for building purposes. It is never much of a judgment to yield to the rates; but acreage, most is now covered in the course of a few years, and the interruption occurring—a fairly invisible. Most of these green belts are so close to the eye, but housing can be satisfied. The award of the Government arbitrator required by the Corporation into £17,000 for 81 acres at £200 an acre. Not bad partial means of livelihood equitable.

SUCCOUR MEASURES.

A Committee has been set up to bring succour to the work of the highest class, to provide occupation for the little leisure time in the Manager briefly outlined the required and money plan. As the mercantile class is composed of men of science, linguists will be duty-bound to act as it does Limerick stand in don't know what our services are capable of in that I am aware that in other cases been comments of the modern languages in the

MR. PHONS ROCHE.

Everyone who knew him in the premature death of Roche the municipal secretary, a very competent official, assuming to a fault, kindly. How he discharged his principal officer of duty was best known to his successive Local Government. During the exhaustive public enquiry conducted by MacLysaght, B.L., Local Censor, into the working of civic affairs, he was chief witness for his department. His evidence was not only clear and concise, but helpful and valuable. It impressed the keen Inspector.

"LITTLE FLOWER" NUN.

St. Joseph's Church is a scene of inspiring devotion. The humble Carmelite religious life, and heroic sanctity of the altars of the Church. "The Little Flower" was dead less than a year when she was canonised. Her shrine at St. Joseph's since been the object of devotion. The Novena which she illustrates the extraordinary life of Therese has made the city. The spiritual exercises attended by packed crowds of every class make it a point to do the

DROMORE CASTLE.

It is learned that the castle on the estate of the Earl of Dromore, Pallaskey, has been purchased by a firm of the city. The intention is to have it restored to its original state.