Honours Go To Munster In Drawn Game

THE 1957-58 Munster team added handsomely to the prestige already gained this season when, before an enthusiastic crowd estimated at 10,000 at Thomond Park yesterday, they were held to a 3-3 draw by the Wallabies.

This was a game which went very much according to plan. There were few isolated spot breaks and the forwards were confined to their own half.

But if English, whose fearless crash tackling by the way, was a treat and won him many new admirers.
