

ville-street, is a grati-ngat us of an imporst Mr. Fred. Lewis, of t of the perfumer can ad as abroad. A new by Mr. Lewis, which is s to the soil, in combi-This perfume is named e visitor has ample opa really beautiful fra-

Earl-street, displays a nufacture, in baths, ja-toilet brushes, harness iron bedsteads, kitchen excellent portmanteaus, ther with dress trunks found exhibited on the Messrs. R Farrell and om to consider "Sheff other make, that one some years ago on ven-good and in many in-be produced in Dublin, any sceptic of this class recommend him to visit examine the display of de by Mr. Tweedall, of er Sackville-street, exhibimirably executed photure is an imperial life-tenant, the painting of A. Scott. This work ist. Mr. Scott likewise e visite and a frame con-be recognised as faith-er will be found a varied ical compounds from the r Erson, Henry-street.

Westland-row, exhibit an, suited for a small how the model of one of pianofortes, of seven tringed treble, and hav-but at a vastly lower commend itself to the e piano who desire to its integrity, but whose o high as the cost of a are placed in the agri-be found an exceedingly n of a miniature billiard

It has been manufacharlemont-bridge works, le. To those who have and to enable them to room, tables of this class and Bewley, the enter-t of Dublin Ship Yard, er steamer Anna Liffey, lin and Kingstown, and thing completion. This of the lines upon which cted, and the amount of

are to be addressed to the Proprietors, MRS. SARAH BASSETT, or WILLIAM HOSFORD.

No communication whatever will be attended to unless authenticated by signature of the writer as guarantee for accuracy, but not for publication.

Advertisements intended for publication in the LIMERICK CHRONICLE should be sent to the office before 12 o'clock on Tuesdays, Thursdays, and Saturdays, otherwise they will be late for insertion.

THE LIMERICK CHRONICLE

TUESDAY EVENING, JUNE 7, 1864.

DEATH OF THE RIGHT REV. DR. RYAN, R. C. BISHOP OF LIMERICK.

We have this evening to record the death of the Right Rev. Dr. Ryan, Roman Catholic Bishop of this diocese, which took place at his residence, Park-house, yesterday morning, to the deep regret of all classes, to whom he was endeared by a life dedicated to their service, during a period of half a century.
The deceased prelate, who was in his 83rd year, was consecrated bishop on the 11th December, 1825, and for 30 years discharged the sacred duties of his calling to the entire satisfaction of his clergy and his flock.
He was kind, charitable, and unostentatious; he never mixed in political affairs, but lent his aid—both by his purse and influence—in promoting every public undertaking which had for its object the advancement of the people at large, without sectarian bias.
In nearly every parish in the diocese he caused churches to be erected, and amongst other monuments of his piety, the new Cathedral of St. John's, in this city, stands pre-eminent. He likewise established throughout the diocese branches of various religious orders and introduced the Jesuits, Redemptorists, Franciscans, Dominicans, and Augustinians to this city. Convents and schools have sprung up under his auspices, affording ample testimony of the watchful care which the venarated Bishop exercised over his flock. During the last three years of his life, Dr. Ryan was incapacitated by age from discharging the onerous and important functions of his high office, but he had installed as his successor a prelate (the Right Rev. Dr. Butler), who, since his consecration in July, 1861, has afforded many proofs of his anxiety to follow in the footsteps of his predecessor. The remains of the deceased Bishop were this evening conveyed in procession through the city to St. John's Cathedral, where they will lie in state for the night, and at 11 o'clock to-morrow the office for the dead and high mass will be performed previous to the remains being deposited to their last resting place within that edifice.

The City of Manchester arrived in Queenstown on Sunday, with advices from New York to the 24th ult., and telegraph to Halifax on the 26th, with further news of interest from the armies of Grant and Lee. The former moved forward on the 20th, with a view to compel the Confederate chief to abandon his position at Spottsylvania; and Secretary Stanton's telegram on the 24th reported that these operations of Lee having fallen back beyond the North Anna River. The object of this manoeuvre, however, may perhaps be inferred from the fact that he then 2 p.m. and having given tele-tender proceeding for Queen all well. News anticipated.

THE CONFERENCE

The Conference met yester-which expires in 5 days, has no The Times says that when a hostilities was proposed, the D declared that they would additional term of a fortnight, on the other hand, desired a two months. It is clear that small advantage to be able to on a country nearly the wh alleged, is German by race and of the season would also bring the Danes would forego one weapons of warfare—the bl ports. At last it was agre tative of the belligerents sho pective governments the prop of hostilities. The matter wa Copenhagen, Berlin, and Viet the answer will come soon ent tion to be finally settled at a rence which will probably tak

On the question of frontiers, neutral powers have proposed the frontier between the inde to be formed to the south of it kingdom to the north; but for refuse to give up so much—the of drawing a line across success which the Conference l that others a fortnight ago whole of the two duchies the the Danish population in the r wig should remain united to ask that the line should be dra which they claim to be a Germ German population in the sou question of detail then the ne powers are at variance; but it have obtained such a basis fo admission that the line must be the two rival races.

The Daily News says the div posed by the neutral powers, the famous Eider line, which against Germany for a thousand cutting off Rendsburg and Ki fortress and making it liable to Denmark will make this a peace. If the neutral powers the acceptance of this proposi be an obvious reason for a suspended hostilities, but if no given before the death origi the Danes feel that it would injurious to prolong the disc

THE GERMAN ALLIES POWER

Several of the papers hint a in case the Germans refuse to the neutral powers.

The Daily News says the ne the belligerents are now virtu main terms of peace, and t