RECORD CONTRACT

Sony's Hermitage Green for Spiegeltent

LIMERICK group Hermitage Green have signed a record deal with Sony Records Ireland and will release their debut single on the label on June 5. The band started out playing sessions in the back room of the Curragower Bar and have evolved into one of the country's most popular touring acts. Armed with a batch of new songs Hermitage Green will be able to celebrate with the Limerick faithful when they headline the Spiegeltent for Culture and Chips Festival on Sunday May 31. The band will be on a nationwide tour for the summer, new single 'Jenny' will be released on June 5. See the video on limerickpost.ie

LIVE

Jack the Lad

JACK L. part cabaret star, part rock god, the Kildareman has been busy this past while with American and European tours playing at the Symphony Space in Manhattan, the San Diego, Edinburgh and Recklinghausen Fringe Festivals, recording a Christmas Special for RTE Radio One and touring as special guest with Jools Holland on the UK leg of his tour.

In this show, Jack will be giving a potted history of his career to date performing songs from his recent smash hit shows 'The 27Club' and 'The Great Wall of China' tour.

Jack L. plays Dolan's this Saturday May 23.

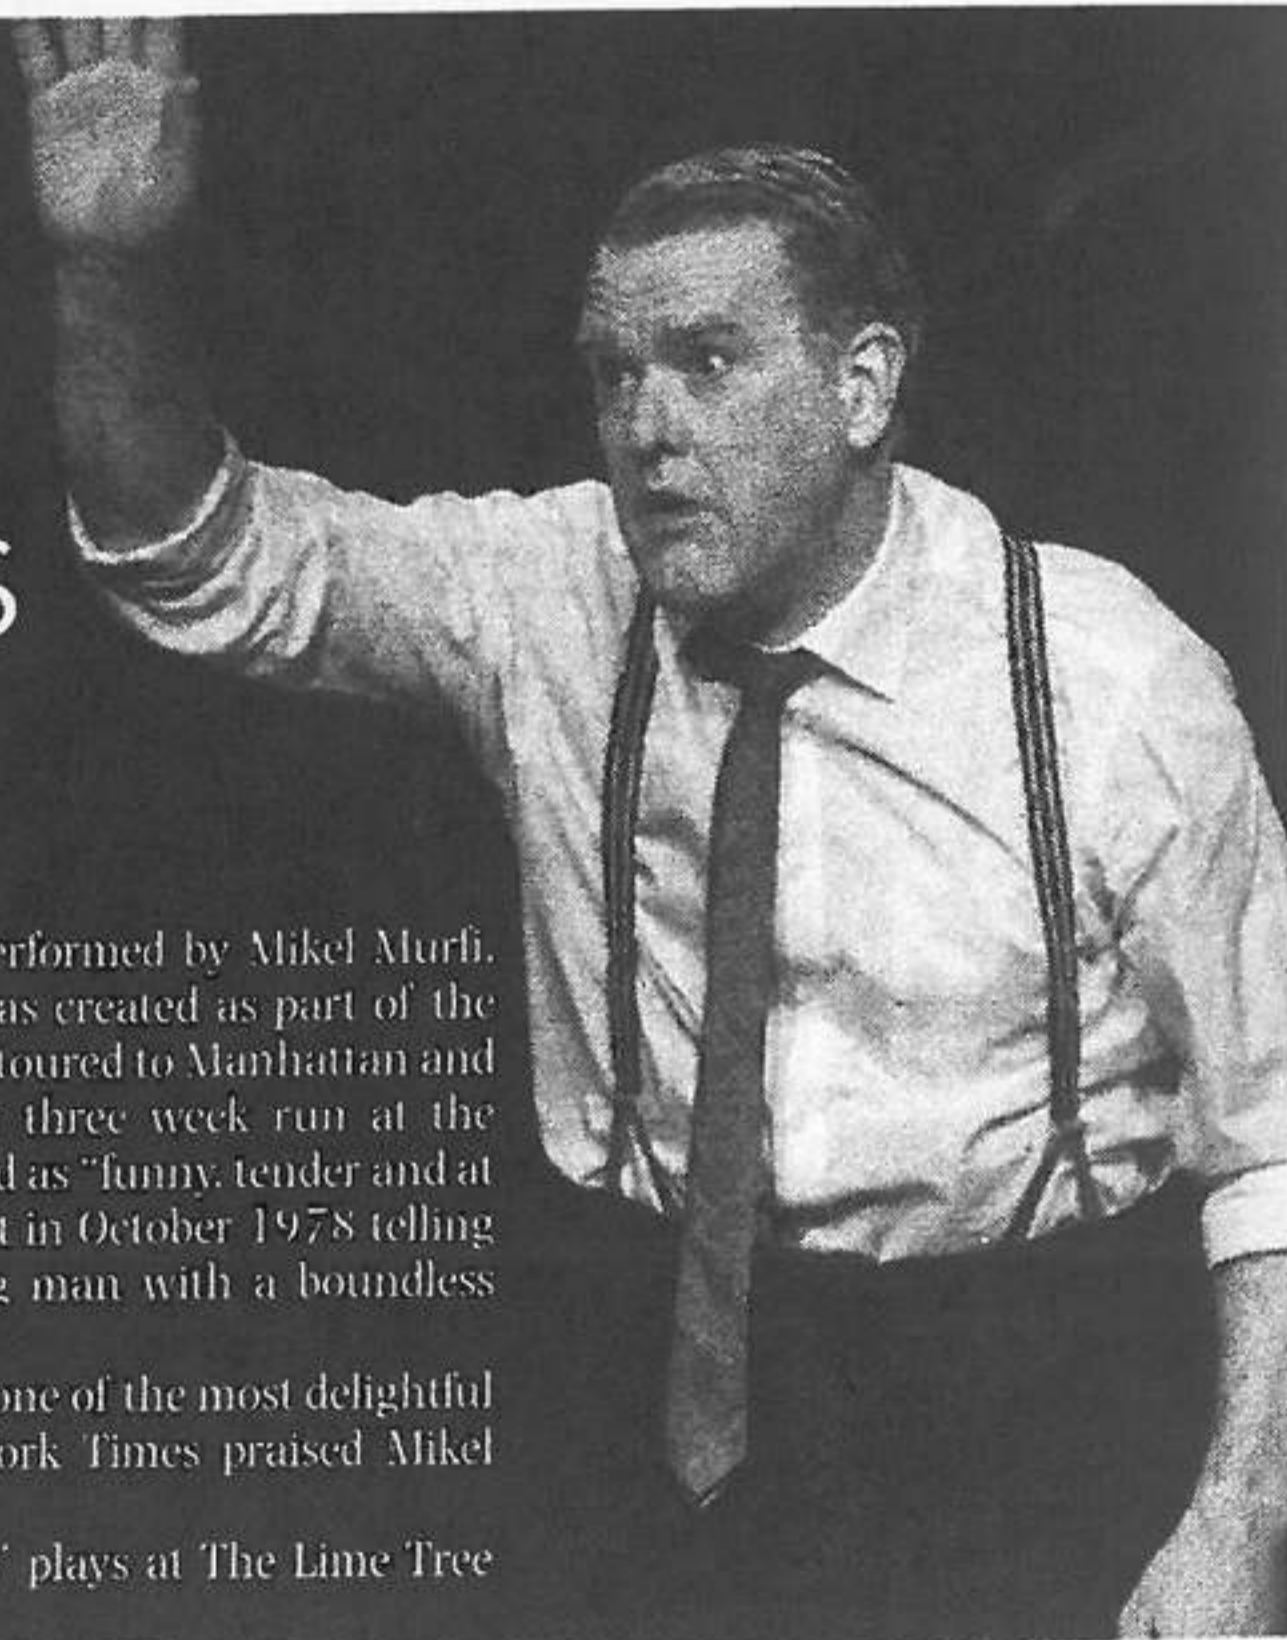

DRAMA

The Man In The Woman's Shoes

A ONE man show written and performed by Mikel Murfi. The Man In The Woman's Shoes was created as part of the Bealtaine Festival 2012. This year it toured to Manhattan and Philadelphia as well as enjoying a three week run at the Peacock Theatre in Dublin. Described as "funny, tender and at times downright daft", the play is set in October 1978 telling the story of Pat Farnon, an ageing man with a boundless enthusiasm for life.

Gay Byrne, RTE lyric FM called it "one of the most delightful theatrical experiences" and New York Times praised Mikel Murfi's "astonishing acting."

'The Man In The Woman's Shoes' plays at The Lime Tree Theatre on Thursday May 28.
