

wheat held for 18 to 28 guineas. A fine crop was e, and business passing is of a retail character.
ring corn fully as dear.

LIVERPOOL CORN MARKET.

Market moderately attended. Weather brilliant, heat slow, at Tuesday's rates. French flour, 6d arer; American unchanged. Beans, oats, and oatmeal, a moderate retail sale at late rates. Very little ing in Indian corn; mixed American, 31s 9d; matz, 33s. Imports inland and coastwise—Malt,
; oats, 3,490; beans, 22; oatmeal, 20; flour, 1,750
bushels.

LIVERPOOL COTTON MARKET.

Sales, 6,000 bales; 1,000 on speculation and for port. Market unchanged.

MANCHESTER TRADE REPORT.

A dull market, with prices in favour of buyers.

GLASGOW IRON MARKET.

No. 1, 55s 3d to 55s 6d; mixed numbers, warrants, 1s 9d to 54s 10½d; No. 3, 54s 6d to 54s 9d. Market quiet.

DUBLIN CORN MARKET.

(Pim, Perry, and Co.'s Report).

Weather fine. Good attendance and fair business in foreign wheat, at 6d advance. Indian corn made at day's prices. New grain not in sufficient supply to quote reliable rates. Old oats slow, and would not bring last prices.

The Earl of Listowel is about to be united to Miss Ernestine Bruce, second daughter of Lord and Lady Ernest Bruce, and who has been universally regarded as the very first rank of the belles of haut monde this year. Lord Ernest Bruce is heir presumptive to his brother, the Marquis of Ailesbury, who, in his turn, is heir presumptive to the Earldom of Cardigan.

The post of Governor of Hong Kong has been accepted by Sir R. M'Donnell, Lieutenant Governor of Nova Scotia.

It is stated from Madrid that the government contemplated the negotiation of commercial treaties with England and Portugal.

Another case of child murder by a mother in England has come to light. The crime was committed in Leicestershire, and the victim was a little boy four years old, who was thrust down a well. The mother, who is a widow, was in distressed circumstances, and had been dismissed a few days before the murder from her situation as housekeeper.

The Italian papers contain an account of a successful descent of the Matterhorn by a member of the Italian Alpine Club, who was climbing one side of the mountain whilst Lord F. Douglas and the other unfortunate Englishmen who perished in their descent were ascending by the opposite side.

Ellis Hugh Jones, a ship broker, was on Tuesday committed to Newgate for trial, on two charges of forging and uttering bills of exchange for £100 and £178 10s. respectively.

In Edinburgh, on Monday, a woman committed suicide by cutting her throat. She had been drinking for some days.

BROTHER TO THE BRIDE, MR. DEBORAH'S BROTHER, Mr. Patrick Kelly, Thomondgate, Limerick, to Alice, eldest daughter of the late Jeremiah O'Callaghan, of Gormanstown.

In Tramore Church, Henry Nixon, Esq., M.D., of Shinrone; to Elizabeth Frances, daughter of the late John L. Oustange, Esq., of Waterford.

In St. Andrew's Church, Dublin, Donough O'Brien, solicitor, son of Richard O'Brien, Esq., Mitchelstown, to Maria, daughter of the late Myles Barry O'Gorman, of St. Anne's Rock, county Cork.

At the Metropolitan Church, Marlborough-street, Dublin, Francis M'Mahon, Esq., of Spring-hill, county Louth, to Marianne Monica, daughter of Peter Duffy, Esq., Dundalk.

At Trinity Church, Rathmines, the Rev. Jonathan Thornhill, A.M., Newtown-Ballee, to Christina, daughter of the late Robert Leech, Esq., M.D.

At Benison Lodge, John Roper Whitestone, Esq., son of the late Rev. John J. Whitestone, to Mary, daughter of John H. Roper, Esq., of Benison Lodge, county Westmeath.

In the Presbyterian Meeting-house, Longford, Henry Kennedy, A.B., M.B., North Frederick-street, Dublin, to Emily Margaret, daughter of the late Wm. Gray, Esq., of Longford.

In the Presbyterian Church, Jonesboro', Charles Lucas, Esq., Carlingford, county Louth, to Anne, daughter of the late George Farlay, Esq., Lackland, Carlingford.

At the Roman Catholic Church, Trim, co. Meath, Thomas Francis Fay, Esq., Manager of the Ulster Bank, Trim, to Mary, daughter of the late Michael Allen, Esq., of Trim.

At St. Martin's-in-the-Fields, London, Sir John Ramsden, Bart., to Lady Gwendoline St. Maur, daughter of the Duke and Duchess of Somerset.

At the Church of St. John the Baptist, Kentishtown, London, Walter, son of the late Thomas Dalrymple Buckeridge, Esq., formerly of the 6th Dragoons, to Mary Sarah, daughter of the late Henry Brayley Wedlake, Esq., of the Inner Temple, London.

DEATHS.

Yesterday morning, at Catherine-street, in this city, aged 30 years, after a protracted illness, sustained with much Christian fortitude, Margaret, the beloved wife of Mr. Eugene Sheehy, proprietor of the Provincial Hotel, deservedly regretted. Her remains will be interred at 2 o'clock to-morrow, at Mount St. Laurence Cemetery.

At the residence of their father, of scarletina, Mary, aged 14 years, and Jane, aged 5 years, daughters of Mr. John O'Farrell, governor of the City Limerick Gaol.

At Henry-street, in this city, of consumption, Mrs. Maria Shannon.

At Ballyknockin, co. Tipperary, Walter Asper, Esq.

At Monastereven, John Yeats, Esq., County Surveyor of Kildare.

At Kingston Lodge, Golden Ball, county Dublin, John Brenan, Esq.

At Rossmakea, Richard Byrne, Esq., J.P.

Suddenly, in Dublin, Miss Harriet Brown Cunningham, daughter of the late Alexander Cunningham, Esq., of Balgowrie.

At Harrington-street, Dublin, Edward Patrick, infant son of George H. Scrivenor, Esq., H.M.C.

At Castletown, Queen's County, Joseph Phelan, Esq., solicitor.

At Monaghan, Martha, wife of Mr. James Mitchell.

Mr. Charles O'Hagan, of Mountbagnal.

At Curry Lodge, Captain James Vaughan Jackson, North Mayo Militia.

At Rostrevor, John, son of the late Wm. Stevenson, Esq., J.P., Belfast.

At Banbridge, co. Down, Thomas, son of John Woods, Esq.

At Belturbet, county Cavan, Mr. T. Small.

At Baywater, London, Catharine, wife of Lieut.-General
C. D. Wilkinson, C.B., Indian Army.

At Edgbaston, Birmingham, Nina Grace, infant daughter of Major the Hon. L. W. Miles, half-pay, Rifle Brigade.

At Southampton, Emma Maria, widow of James Curtis, Assistant-Surgeon of H.M.'s Army.

At Aberystwith, William Frederic Idwellyn, son of the Rev. George Debutts.

At Allahabad, Frederick Wm. Lewis, Lieutenant 107th Bengal Infantry.