

Died at 102

The Passing of a County Tipperary Centenarian

The death has occurred of Mr John Dunphy, Toor, Ballypatrick, at the age of 102 years. He was a well-known and popular figure in the district. His recital of many exciting events that occurred in the locality during his long life always attracted great attention, and his death marks the passing of a beloved personality. He was a musician of no mean order, and as flautist contributed frequently to many local social gatherings.
