known to millions of TV fans as "The Singing Cop." His Limerick concert was such a success that it is to be sincerely hoped that he will be able to include a recital in his native city and, perhaps, the vast Savoy would do him justice.
A two-weeks engagement in Europe's largest theatre — the Dublin Theatre Royal — is a cer-

WELCOME BACK KATHLEEN

Limerick actress Kathleen Ryan poses with John Gregson on the set of "Jacqueline" for the first photograph she has had taken in a British studio for several years. Starring with John Gregson, Kathleen plays the part of his wife in "Jacqueline."

In the States he has appeared on TV with Carmel Quinn, the young Dublin girl who has roc-keted to stardom in a few short years.
His recordings in the States are selling very well, but these are not available in this country. I hear that he will have some of them with him, so perhaps we will have an opportunity of hearing them in the local cinemas.

Limerick Tostal Film Society

Miss Babs Shanahan, popular and highly efficient secretary of the Limerick Tostal Film Society, tells me that the membership is now in the region of four hundred, nearly three hundred of whom are from Counties Clare, Limerick, Cork and Tipperary.
It is, indeed, a surprise to me to learn that less than 200 enthusiasts enrolled from the Limerick City area.
For a modest sum of half a guinea, filmgoers can join for a full year and see a first-class selecbrilliant international career.

Since winning her First Prize at the Paris Conservatoire in the class of Lazare Levy, this artist has appeared throughout Europe as soloist with all the leading orchestras of France, England, Holland, Germany, Switzerland, Scandinavia, Poland, Hungary, etc. She has played under the baton of most of the international conductors and has taken part in numerous festivals such as Edinburgh, Aix-en-Provence, Strasbourg, Prague, Holland, etc.
This artist has just completed a highly successful tour of Australia, and in 1954 won the Grand Prix du Disque.
