

examined, witness agreed the plaintiff was hysterical making the statement (pro-o him.

THE DECISION.
Judge, in giving his decision, the plaintiff contributed negligence as she did not on O'Connell Street. Her it to the Guards gave a different view of the accin she had given in evidence. undoubtedly flustered and but the fact was that she e statement and she choose o. Unfortunately she said: s I had the pram down on l; the pram was dragged by of the car, but I held on pram." He would hold that was carelessness on the s part as she either bumped m into the back portion of or she permitted the girl r to do it. He could not Mr. Greene of negligence his opinion the action failed.
Judge gave costs to the nt.

L. O'RAHILLY VISIT TO NEWCASTLE WEST.

Alfred O'Rahilly, President University College, Cork, will Newcastle West to-morrow lay, 21st inst.), when he will y open the University Ex-Rural Science and Sociology which are to be held at the stle West Vocational School ne next two years. Some young farmers from the limerick area will participate courses, which will be conwith an examination for sity Diplomas in Rural and Sociology.
opening of the Courses will place in the Parochial Hall, stle West, at 8 p.m. (old time) row, 21st inst.—and not on h as previously announced.

FOYNES SHIPPING

8,000 tons of spirits and gas the Irish-American Oil Co. at Foynes on Monday ing in the "Solsten," a Nortanker. Also 750 tons of for the Irish Shell Co., Ltd., l in the s.s. "Shelbrit 8" on me day.

that he had left the lorry on occasions since last September outside the Augustinian Church. Witness had his hand out on the occasion after he had let two vehicles pass.
As he had his hand out he heard a bump. He had 16 years experience of driving.

The Justice said there was not much in the case. The defendant was a good driver but he was somewhat careless on the occasion. He would impose a fine of 20/- for driving without due care.

FILM STAR HOME

Kathleen Ryan, the film star, at present at home in Limerick on holidays from Hollywood, presented the "Mr. Munster" prize to Mr.
Louis McCarthy, Adare, at the Adare
Golf Club dance. [L.L. Photo.]

SENT TO JAIL

HOW HE GOT WATCHES

A young man, Christopher Tub-ridy, Carnacalla, Kilrush, was sent to jail for one month by Justice D. F. Gleeson in the City District Court to-day.

The case, which concerned charges of larceny in Limerick and in Ennis, was adjourned from last week to see if the Justice might proceed to deal with the Ennis charges.

The State Solicitor having informed Supt. Colleran that the Ennis charges could be dealt with by the Justice, the sentence, as stated, was imposed.

In the evidence given last week it was stated that the accused, when obtaining watches from people in the city for alleged repair, said he was setting up in Limerick as a jeweller, which was a concoction on the part of the accused.

mance or his duty; he tried to his country's arms; he died to s: its honour. He was a soldier & he knew a soldier's duty."

The hero's remains were remov-after lying six years in Rabaul, the U.S.A. for burial with full nary honours.

MOTHER PRESENTED WITH HIS DECORATIONS.

Mrs. Downey, his widowed moth-flew from Shannon to attend sad ceremony and was afterwa-presented with all the medals & decorations won by her son. was only 32 years of age at the d of his death in far-off New Guir

PORT OF LIMERICK

RECENT ARRIVALS AND DEPARTURES

ARRIVALS:

Brendonia (Hamburg), timber Merida (Karlsborg via Cork), t ber.
Porthmeor (Garston), coal.
Kilfenora (Liverpool), coal general.
Coleraine (Partington), coal.
Allegheny (Southampton), f oil.
Julianne (Stettin), coal.
SAILINGS:
Irish Plane (Cork), part inwa scrighum.
Clarina (Liverpool), livestock
general.
Brendonia (Fowey), light.
Merida (Rouen), light.
Porthmeor (Swansea), light.

DIOCESE OF LIMERICK

Conferences will be held du-the coming week as follows:—

Newcastle West — Monday, 23rd.
Rathkeale—Tuesday, Oct. 24th Kilmallock—Thursday, Oct. 2 Limerick—Friday, Oct. 27th.
Each Conference will be preceded by a Mass for the deceased Bishop and Clergy of the Diocese, beginning at 11 o'clock.

VOCATIONAL OFFICER PAY

The Minister for Education notified the General Secretary of the Vocational Education Off-Organisation that he expects in a position to reply by the end of October to the representa-made to him regarding the p-Vocational Education Officers.