Ancient sites are right here on your doorstep
Take a holiday at home and tour some of Ireland's Ancient East attractions.

The ancient sites of Ireland's Ancient East offer a glimpse into the past, with the remains of ancient settlements, burial sites, and historic monuments scattered across the region. From the Iron Age hill forts to the Early Christian monasteries, these sites provide a fascinating insight into the rich history of Ireland. Whether you're a history enthusiast or simply looking for a unique way to explore the country, the Ancient East offers a wealth of attractions to discover.

The area is also home to a variety of traditional Irish crafts and industries, including pottery, weaving, and metalwork. Visitors can learn about the history and culture of these crafts by visiting local workshops and galleries, where you can see artisans at work and purchase handmade gifts.

In addition to the ancient sites and crafts, the Ancient East also offers a range of outdoor activities, including hiking, cycling, and boating. With the many rivers and lakes in the region, there are plenty of opportunities to explore the natural beauty of Ireland on foot or by water.

Whether you're interested in history, culture, or outdoor adventure, the Ancient East is a fascinating destination to explore. So why not take a step back in time and discover the wonders of Ireland's Ancient East for yourself?
