

needs to be awakened if the man is to become fully human and fully balanced. A man without gentleness, feeling and compassion is a monster. "So let us rid ourselves once and for all of the childish notion that these gentle virtues are a sign of weakness and make a man less manly. They are on the contrary a sign of strength," he added.

Reaction

Fr. Moore added: "All of us must be careful and honest about our reaction to violence. Not only psychology, but any honest examination of conscience shows dark depths of latent sadism in our reaction to public enemies and

New artists group formed

A GROUP of Limerick artists calling themselves All & 10 Sorts, have just opened up a new work studio in the city.

While the name might suggest ten artists there is only in fact six at the moment.

"We are looking for some poets and writers," explained chairman of the group, Mr. Tom Ryan.

They are now based at 20 Ellen Street—overhead Torro Supermarket.

Included in the group at the moment is Paul O'Reilly, Richard Anglim, Richard Slade, Andrew Kearney, Pat Ryan and Tom Ryan, who is no relation.

They are painters, sculptors and printmakers. Already they have held a number of successful exhibitions with plans for more in the coming months.

Tom Ryan explained that they came together so that they can work in a conducive atmosphere. "Sometimes it is hard for an artist to work from home with children and family," he stated.

The group received grant aid from the Arts Council towards their rent.

Among the other advantages is that it helps artists who have just graduated to work with established professionals who can give them advice and guidance.
