

le left in our midst. As the Little Flower Hall to give such feasts of these people will be with be a source of great to followers of these re- have their own private at last. The entrance is 's Row, off Catherine St. moderate many lovers of o cannot attend on Wed- nights, Father Hunt is of having recitals of classical music on Friday instead (same time). I ur it said that nowhere e get such feasts of cul- tertainment for the sum of one shilling. is not any break during stmas holidays. Recitals usual.
 g you, dear Mr. Editor, erely, ADVANCEMENT."

Cameras For the Instructors

tors in Agriculture in ed cameras to take photos i films can be made for pose of lectures with a ggle, and at Saturday's of the Co. Committee of re it was decided to pro- e camera at a cost of

A.O., Mr. J. Barry, told mitted that the Instructors needed two cameras, for West Clare, for the pur- making films to assist in at winter classes for far- here were various organi- presenting films at their -but the Committee of are was being held up by g in a position to produce n films with a particular towards conditions in he purpose of showing lectures, they had to hire ich were not applicable to most of them dealt with and some of them were

No Trace Of Missing Car Dealer

is still no trace of Mr. Ed- inch (35), car dealer of Co. Clare, whose car was om the River Shannon on ning of the 10th December. inquiries continue un- and watch is being kept e banks of the Shannon.

MUSICAL THIEF ?

f or thieves who broke into se of Mr. Michael Lysaght, unchin's Street, St. Mary's cently, took a number of records but left other

EXTRA HELPERS

An indication of the volume of work handled by the G.P.O. here was evidenced in the large number of temporary sorters and postmen recruited through the local Employment Exchange to assist with the record traffic in the post office.

Officials at the G.P.O. to-day paid tribute to the co-operation given by the public right up to the last delivery of mail. They also praised the efficiency of the post office staffs in the various departments, who worked patiently through long hours handling the huge amounts of parcel and letter mail.

erick telephonists, who have re- peatedly located hospitals in vari- ous parts of England on behalf of enquiries originated in Limerick.

Condition Of Injured Man

On inquiry at Barrington's Hos- pital to-day it was learned that the condition of Mr. Michael O'Connell (80), St. Mary's Park, who was knocked down by a car on Sarsfield Bridge on Christmas Eve, was "fairly comfortable."

DID HE PAINT A FAMOUS PICTURE ?

Our picture is that of St. John Long, believed by many to be the painter of Limerick's most historic picture—"The Chaining of Spring-Rice." Long, a native of Newcastle West, has been described as an artist and Charlatan. An interesting account of his career appeared in our last week-end issue.

the table display.

Application for Dance Licence At Lakeside Hotel

An application was made recent sitting of Killaloe C Hector, Myles Newenham, sinee of the Lakeside Hot Killaloe, for a dance licen the new ballroom attached hotel, but the hours gran Justice Hurley were not a by the applicant, who ha teen days to consider mak appeal.

Mr. C. C. McCutcheon, s who appeared for the app said that a company ha registered and he handed certificate of incorporation title was held jointly by M tor Myles Newenham a father and this was assigne the father and son to a company. Mr. Hector M. ham was the nominee of ti pany to take licences. The licence he was applying f day was required for the from January 18, 1960, o They wanted the licence t ate until the next Licensing in September, 1960.

THE LICENCE

The licence was intended t the ballroom and the dini and the application was c to the ballroom and dini which were the only two r interest in the application.

Inspector E. McDonnel there was no objection to plication.

Justice—As far as this concerned these dances ar ted only from 8 p.m. to 1 summer and 8 p.m. to mid winter.

Mr. McCutcheon — They prefer to refuse that. Th was in the Archdiocese of Justice — I have cognis that.

Mr. McCutcheon said t clients would not accept t posed licences, and wan opportunity of consideri matter.

FIRE BRIGADE MEN THE MOVE

The members of the I Fire Brigade were kept e Christmas Eve. No less calls were made to the St the matter of chimney fu ambulance requisitions.

£5 FOR "UNI." FU

The Committee of the F Co-operative Dairy Socie Tipperary, has through th rick Leader, sent a chequ to the Committee promot University movement fo rick.