The attendance at Saturday's match at Lansdowne Road between Ireland and New Zealand reached 11,500 and the takings amounted roughly to £950. Of this sum the "All Blacks" receive £350, which represents half the net gate, but they only receive £50 for Tuesday's match at Limerick against Munster, this sum having been arranged previously, and they take no share of the gate.

Yesterday the funeral of the late Rev. W. P. Dundon, O.S.A., took place from the Augustinian R.C. Church, George street, for Mount St. Laurence Cemetery. Office and Requiem Mass was celebrated by the Rev. James Frost, O.S.A., Ballyhaunis, a cousin of the deceased. There was a large attendance of the clergy and public.

The annual concert under the auspices of the Lawn Tennis and Cricket Club of the Limerick Protestant Young Men's Association was held in the Lecture Hall, 97 George Street, on Tuesday night, and, as usual, proved a brilliant success from every point of view. There was a very large audience, there being at eight o'clock barely standing room at the end of the hall, and so a goodly number who arrived at that hour found themselves minus seats.

The "Ararat Chronicle" has the following: We regret to have to chronicle the death of the Rev. Father Carroll, who, after a protracted illness, passed away at the R.C. Presbytery, from consumption. The deceased, who was 31 years of age, was a native of Kilmallock, Co. Limerick. He was educated at Maynooth College, near Dublin, and was ordained seven years ago. After Requiem Office and High Mass at St. Mary's the remains were interred in the Ararat cemetery. The funeral was a large one.

The date for the Killarney Convention for the Deepening of Spiritual Life for 1906 has been fixed at May 7th to 12th, and a large gathering is expected, the Convention of 1905 (the first ever held) having proved so helpful to those who attended it. The expected speakers are the Rev. Eeven H. Hopkins, and the Rev. J. Stuart Holden. A tent to seat 500 is being provided, and special hotel terms and railway fares will be arranged. It is widely felt that the influence of this gathering on the Spiritual Life of the South of Ireland is likely to be deep and lasting.

Much regret is felt and the deepest sympathy with the relatives is expressed at the death of Mr. John Joseph Begg, eldest son of Captain Begg, Cecil St., which occurred at Barrington's Hospital after a short illness on Monday last. The funeral, which took place yesterday morning from St. Michael's Church, was large and representative, and testified to the high esteem in which the deceased was held by his fellow-citizens. The clergy in attendance were:—Rev. J. M. Cregan, Adm., St. Michael's; Rev. J. O'Connor, C.C., do. The chief mourners were:—Captain Begg (father), Benn and Michael (brothers), E. J. Winter, J. Winter, H. Winter, D. M'Inerney and Sons, (cousins). The Limerick Dramatic Class—of which deceased was a member have passed a warm vote of sympathy with Captain Begg.
