On The
ial I.R.A. cution

EY'S recently published ies of Roger Casement."
sinister light on the posed to have been the
in Ireland by the I.R.A.
. That execution was
ick, at a place known as miles south of Newcastle
llogher.

PROBABLY THEN IN [illegible] PAY

CUP FOR HANDBALL CLUB

BELLRINGERS BROUGHT IRISH CHAMPIONSHIP TO LIMERICK

The Bellringers attached to the Redemptorist Church, Limerick, had the distinction recently of winning the Bellringers' Championship of Ireland. Cups won in the process of their outstanding achievements were the Murphy and Cherry cups.

The Murphy Cup was awarded in open competition, which, incidentally, was held in Christ Church Cathedral, Dublin, and was set aside for good striking."

It is to the credit of the Redemptorist Church Bellringers that they have won the Murphy Cup [illegible] but that entitled them to view their successes with pride and pleasure.

In the above group is included the winning team of Bellringers. From row left to right:—Rev. Fr. [illegible], C.SS.R., Mr. [illegible], President of the Bellringers' Society holding Murphy Cup; Very Rev. Fr. G. Reynolds, C.SS.R., Rector; Mr. [illegible], Conductor; Rev. Fr. E. Dunne, C.SS.R.

Second Row (left to right):—Messrs. T. Cleary, L. Hickey, J. Cleary, V. Kennedy and P. Benson.

Back Row (left to right):—Messrs. B. Bourigan, J. Stokes, P. Hanley, D. Donovan and J. O'Flynn.

Buried With

A Happy Memory Of

MOTOR

Ideal H Exhibition:
For The H

(BY LADY CORE

[illegible]

WONDER COOKERY