SINGULAR APPLICATION TO A MAGISTRATE.— At the Dalston Police Court yesterday a young German lady, who said her husband was at the Royal Exchange (Lloyd's), applied to the magis- trate for an order for the imprisonment of a girl who had supplanted her in her husband's affec- tions. Mr Bros said he could not do this. The applicant (crying)—Can't you have him here and make him promise to give up the girl? Mr Bros—No. The applicant—But she goes in my name, and I am the mistress. Mr Bros—Does your husband give you food? The applicant— Yes; but he keeps us without clothes to keep this girl. Mr Bros—Write to his or your friends or get a divorce. The applicant—I don't want a divorce, but I want the girl put in prison. Mr Bros—I cannot help you.

SPECIALITIES—"Weed Killer."—We would call particular attention to this useful liquid for totally destroying weeds on gravel and other walks; one trial will prove this. "Watson's celebrated lawn sand" for destroying daisies and weeds in lawns: also a useful fertilizer. "Hippacem," the best remedy known for wounds and bruises on cattle, horses, sheep, and dogs. We have received numerous testimonials as to its curative properties. For cyclists and any persons liable to accidents it is invaluable. "Fly Preventative"— This invaluable preparation is unrivalled for pre- venting flies annoying cattle in hot weather. We would strongly urge gentlemen and farmers to use it, as it would be a great relief to their cattle.—SMITH, PARKER, & FITT, William street, Limerick. (June 20)
