

ed to be a decisive
och in Irish history.
ed with many other
te locality with the
among historic sites
the spot with which
be recognised. Its
we know there has
dreds of years who
precise mountain on
nfeabhrat.

rather than by any
'Donovan, greatest
fied the place . . .

otations to the Four
s no other than the
ble summit is Seefin
and Cork and that
untains is merely a
."

again the only road
th to Kilmallock.
lled the Noneen, or
ng flowed through
through green fields
of the Lowe family
nce to it as follows:
mountayne springs
leads through the
yhowe on the last
een Flemingstowne
e at Flemingstowne.
estate it flows by the
view of the roadside
of the house itself.
tion which Sunville
who was a County

hily farm, which at e received his early
d at the Christian
eted his secondary
where he had a dis-

Most Rev. Dr. Henry Murphy,
Bishop of Limerick 1958-1973