

an appren
the Techn
an employ ick Motor
his succes
place in I
Medal in t
Certificat
Trades Scheme.

DRAMA

The C
were pres
Move by
at the Play
were Sea
Lawless,
Gladys M
Sherlock
Michael C
Russell.
Hoare's fir

HURLING

Limeric
Clare in League. T
were P C
B Keane,
McGarry,
mott Kelly
Michael M
O'Shea, I
Vivian Co
Mick
Moloney.
Hogan, P
Seamus Q
and D Hou

RUGBY

Some te
Shannon II
Howard,
Stokes, B
dergast,
O'Donovan
Braddish,
Lyons, G J
A Gleeson.
Phayer.

Bohemi
O'Connell
P. Walsh,
O'Sullivan
Thompson
Mullearn
Hurley, T
L. P. D.

Cork Regatta, 1958: group of Athlunkard Boat Club members stopped by Liam Ryan: Back row (from left): Syd Hourigan, Ned McConkey, Van Glancy, Ger Meenan, Willie Henn, Joe McNameera, Paddy Ryan, Barry O'Shea, Michael Shanahan. Centre: Michael Reid, Tony Flynn, Donagh Flannery, Joe Gleeson, Gerry Donovan. Front: Jim Cronin.

that milk of a high quality
be supplied to Limerick.

OPERAS

Producer to this year's Festival of Grand Opera, Eamonn Henry, feels that the two operas which have been chosen, La Traviata and La Boheme, have tremendous popular appeal. The Festival of Grand Opera will open at the Savoy Theatre on November 15.

CITY THEATRE

The City Theatre has given us the opportunity of seeing very many plays and players of the highest quality down the years, and, with its current offering of

to see if it would enable tankers of up to 100,000 tons to berth there.

NOEL FRAWLEY

Noel Frawley is playing the Marquis D'Obigny in La Traviata for the third

REN-TEL

With a band playing, flags flying, and coloured balloons floating in soft autumn air, the mayor, Frances Condon, opened their first under 12 league. After a rousing and thrill-packed match, Dominick Hayes, captain of the Garryowen team, received the St Michael's Cup and his team a set of medals from

For Hais were P O'Brien, C Quinn, T Vaughan, B Fitzgerald, S O'Leary, V Hogan, R Shannon, G Stack, P Ryan, V Loftus, J Coffey.

HEADMASTER

The Department of Education sanctioned the appointment of John O'Donovan as headmaster of the Limerick School of Art. He succeeded P McAvooy, who had taken up a position in Scotland.

35 YEARS AGO