

40 Years Ago

LIMERICK BOAT CLUB

Patrick McMahon, Ellen Street, died in his late twenties. He was a popular member and coxwain of Limerick Boat Club, and was honorary secretary for some years. At his funeral members of the club formed a guard of honour and the club pennant was placed on the coffin.

1952

Limerick Chronicle
26/5/92