

present Lord
oke, and she is as popular as her

HTS FOR TO-NIGHT AND TO-MORROW.

who would climb and soar aloft, t needs keep ever at his side tonic of a wholesome pride.

Arthur Hugh Clough.

k 'ill the last beam fadeth, ideth to shine no more;
k while the night is darkening, hen man's work is o'er.

Walker.

WS-NOTES AND NOTIONS.

CITY DEATH RATE.

th-rate for the city for the four weeks ember 9th was 19.8, the rates for the a being—November 18th, 9.6; November December 2nd, 27.3, and December 9th, rate registered for the 22 town districts The highest rates were at Clonmel, 29.5, ena, 23.9; the lowest rates were, Water-nd Sligo, 14.4.

ON FOURPENCE A DAY.

tion whether it is possible to live on day or not, is to be tested in a practical Joshua Oldfield states in the "Chronicle" dozen out of work clerks are to be l given a combination of physical labour work; and the cost of the food that is rem during the exertion is not to exceed or day per head.

THE AGE OF PREMIERS.

Campbell-Bannerman becomes Prime n age exceeded only by one Premier of s—Lord Palmerston—who was 71 when the leading place in the Government. as 59, Lord Salisbury 55, Mr. Balfour Rossberry 46.

THE VALUE OF A COMMA.

ie following from the Wanted column rery—"Required a man to milk and oughs. Apply —." The salary stated, but a man who can extract on a ploughshare ought to be worth these day of agricultural depression.

TWO CURIOUS NOTICES.

of a small river in County Cavan e with the following inscription:— this stone is out of sight it is not e river," but an old notice in Kent a. It reads: "This is the bridle path f you can't read this you had better read"

Ennis Guardians yesterday decided to send a patient requiring special treatment to Dublin.

The Newmarket-on-Fergus hurling match resulted—Newmarket, 6 goals, 12 points; Killala Stars, 4 goals, 6 points.

We regret to announce the death of Lady Ellen Browne, sister of the late Earl of Ken-mare, which occurred at Malvern on December 10th in the 80th year of her age.

A resolution of sympathy with the family of the late Mr. McInerley (Dublin), was passed by Ennis Guardians yesterday, who a journaled as a mark of respect.

At the inaugural meeting of the Glencore Football Club, Mr. Jack Gallagher presiding, the following officers were elected—Mr. M.
Roche, captain; J. Guinane, vice-captain.

It is understood the Rev. T. Harrington, C.C.
Castleisland, Co. Kerry, has been appointed parish priest of Bonane by His Lordship the Most Rev. Dr. Mangan, Bishop of Kerry.

Miss M. M. Kellegher, who has been attached to the Lismore Post Office for many years past, has just been transferred to a more lucrative position in the Ballingarry Office.

Emigration from Ireland, which shows a large increase this year, forms the subject of a circular issued by the Irish Roman Catholic Bishops with a view to discouraging it.

Although Lord Justice Matthew is progressing as well as could be expected, there is little likelihood of his resuming his place in the Court of Appeal.

The body of the five-year-old child named Bourke (not Burns as at first stated) which was accidentally drowned at Grange, Co. Limerick, eight or ten days ago, was found on Saturday exactly where it fell into the river.

The barometric pressure has been abnormally high in the city during the last few days, and touched 31 inches (mean sea level) on Tuesday afternoon. The result has been a still air and rather foggy condition in Limerick.

The electric lighting cable in connection with the works on the Wellesley Bridge was successfully laid under the river at the Swivel Bridge yesterday afternoon by the contractor, Mr.
Dillon.

It is anticipated that Captain Shawe-Layton in his address at Derry on Saturday, 15th inst., will, amongst other matters, make reference to the present position of the apprentice boys and Catholics of that city.

Frank Ward, a groom, no fixed residence, was yesterday returned for trial at Dublin on a charge of having stolen £14, and a silver watch from Daniel Quaid, Ballintoe, Co. Limerick, at a lodging house in Great Britain street.

At a special meeting of the Dublin Corporation yesterday a motion in favour of the appointment of a committee to carry out the provisions of the Unemployed Workmen Act, 1905, was rejected by fifteen votes to nine.

The closing meeting of first part of Session 1905-6 of the P. Y. M. A. will be held to-morrow Friday) evening at 8 o'clock, when there will be a debate: "That the Execution of Charles I. was justifiable." Ladies are invited.

A marriage is arranged between Captain J.
Caalon Markes, the Lancashire Fusiliers, only surviving son of Alfred Carlton Markes, of 25 Norfolk Crescent, Hyde Park, W., and Philomena Agnes Mary, third daughter of Charles Edward Ryan, F.R.C.S., J.P., Glanlara, Tipperary.

A young man named James McCusker, who resides at Mullineery, about four miles from Enniskillen, died in the Fermanagh County Infirmary on Tuesday from injuries the cause of which is a complete mystery, and which resulted in complete loss of memory.

The interment at Moyliscar Cemetery, near Mullingar, took place on Tuesday of the late Mr. Frederick W. Loftus, Tottenham.

in reply His Excellency writes
"To the 'Evening Herald,' God Bless Ireland—(Sir
and Rachel Dudley."

CITY SCHOOL AT COMMITTEE

A meeting of the City School Committee was held to-day, V.O. presiding. The other members were—Rev. J. Crogan, Adm.
Rev. G. L. Swain, M.A.; Rev. A.
St. John's; and Mr. J. G. O'Brien.
The Secretary, Mr. Wm. A.
Clerk, and the Inspectors, Mr. and Fitzgerald were in attendar.
Orders were made for lea-against some alleged defau-ordinary business transacted.

A BOON FOR THE

(FROM OUR CORRESPONDENT)

The very long continued dry the summer and autumn month be a great boon to the poorer cladistrict, as turf, the fuel in gen-very cheap, a great quantity of saved in the fine weather. It is third the price of what it was in That this is an important co-those with whom money is scarce saying.

RECOGNISED THROUGH BOOK.

(FROM OUR CORRESPONDENT)

The dead body of a man was in a canal close to the road a between Tarbert and Listowel.
Savings Bank book led to his id-Patrick Creed, who has been mis-ho ne near Ballylongford since N-Dr Clancy, J.P., district corcinquest, when a verdict of "De-ing" was returned.

THE CORPORATI

A meeting of the Hackney Cars the Corporation was held last nig-presiding. The case of a jarvey cit was alleged had assaulted a n-Corporation after the meeting of t-Thursday night last, was consid-agreed after some conversation to matter for a fortnight with the vietime for an apology being made in was also agreed that for the present drivers should be admitted to the C-during the holding of meetings o-tion. Two ply for hire licences wer-Mr. Woodhouse, 31 George street.

A LIFEBOAT EXPERI

(BY TELEGRAPH TO-DAY)

The Walton-on-Maze Voluntewhich went out at eight o'clock night returned safely at four morning. The craft went out in signals from a sunken lightship wh-that a vessel was in distress in th-of Long Sands or Kentish Knock, proceeded there but failed to di-vessel. Thereupon the lifeboat home but owing to contrary wind hours were occupied in return-