

Limerick Chronicle

Tuesday, November 5, 1991.

PRICE 25p

YEAR 225

Special souvenir edition

The new Limerick is best exemplified by the way in which it has again turned its face back to the Shannon. Its mediæval quarter is now again its focus – much as it was until comparatively modern times. Limerick is old, but constantly renewing itself. Rather like the Limerick Chronicle, in fact.