PUBLICAN WITH TWO LICENCES IN SAME TOWN

A PUBLICAN who owns two licensed premises in the same town appeared before Justice C. S. Smyth at Dromcollogher Court, on Monday last week. She was Mrs. Maria O'Connor, Milford, and she was charged with an alleged breach of the licensing laws on 1st March.

Mr. M. McKenna, G.S., Newle West, prosecuted, and defence was represented by Mr. J. J. Binky, solr.

Evidence was given by Sergt. J. J. Binky, Milford, that at 10.45 p.m. on the Sunday night in question he noticed the door of the premises was open, with the licensee's band inside. When he entered the premises he found about six people in the bar and about the same number in a tap-room off the bar.

All the parties were drinking stout, with the exception of one who was having lemonade. When the licensee entered the premises about 10.50 p.m. the men got away out the back, as he was alone. One of the men gave a wrong name and could not be traced.

CARNIVAL BEING HELD. No explanation was given for the presence of the men but there was a carnival being held in the village at the time. There was a large number of people on the streets and probably accounted for the breach.

Answering Mr. Binky, witness said that the licensee had two licensed premises, which were identified as No. 1 and No. 2. There was a previous conviction in respect of No. 1 premises but none in respect of No. 2 premises, on which the men were found on this occasion.

Mr. McKenna said there were no previous convictions in respect of No. 1 premises.

GOOD RECORD. Mr. Binky said he was admitting the offence, which was due to the fact that a carnival was in progress in the village and the men in question pressed the licensee for drink. The only point he wished to make was that as far as he was concerned there was no previous conviction within living memory in respect of the premises in which the men were caught. In view of this previous very good record he asked Justice to allow the licensee off with a nominal penalty.

Justice—There was a conviction in respect of the licensee in respect of other premises.

Mr. Binky—That is so but it is different premises but in view of the extremely good record of this particular house I would ask you to take a lenient view of the case.

NO ENDORSEMENT. Justice—I will Mr. Binky.

Coliseum Cinema, Sold, To Become A Place Of Industry

THE Coliseum Cinema, O'Connell Street, the property of Mr. Thomas Gough, has been sold. Never again will pictures, of the moving variety, in any case, be shown in it, for the Coliseum will, in the near future, be associated with industrial activity.

Negotiations for the sale and purchase of the Coliseum have been going on for some time, but it was only during the past twenty-four hours that the appropriate signatures were affixed to the necessary documents.

Mr. A. J. Sexton, auctioneer, conducted the sale on behalf of Mr. Thomas Gough and it is understood that Mr. Michael B. O'Malley, solr., acted for the purchasers. The sale price has not been disclosed.

BOUGHT IN TRUST.

A "Limerick Leader" reporter states that the premises were purchased in trust for a Limited Liability Company yet to be formed. The trade in which the principals are concerned is the manufacture of clothes. From this it is to be assumed that the Coliseum is to become a clothing factory.

Steps are being taken to form the Limited Liability Company, in the personnel of which Limerick names are not likely to appear. In the meantime the Coliseum will be put in the hands of a building contractor whose job it will be to make it suitable for its future service.

MESSRS. A. O'DONOVAN, LTD. Messrs. A. O'Donovan, Ltd., whose premises in Patrick Street were destroyed by fire five weeks ago, have taken the Mechanics' Institute Hall, Pery Square, as temporary premises. To-day they are installing new machinery and it is expected that work will be in full swing in the course of a few days.

PURCHASE OF SITE.

Messrs. O'Donovan are negotiating with the Corporation for the purchase of a site off Dominick Street for a new factory. It can be said, as a matter of fact, that all details of the purchase terms have been agreed to as between Messrs. O'Donovan and the City Manager (Mr. M. Macken, B.A.).

At the meeting of the City Council on Friday night next the City Manager will submit a report on the proposed sale of the site when, it is expected, the Council will approve of the terms.

NEARING TRUCE IN KOREAN WAR

A TRUCE can be expected any day now in Korea. A close step towards its proclamation came to-day at Panmunjom when the United Nations delegates and the Communist negotiators signed an agreement on the exchange of prisoners of war after an armistice has been signed. This is the culmination of two years of trying to solve the prisoners of war poser.

EVERYTHING would seem to point to an early Armistice in Korea.
