ERBIBLE FLOOD IN THE ARGENTINE. Advices from Buenos Ayres give details of the bursting of a canal at Cordova on the 20th Dec. last. Half of the city was inundated, the damage being estimated at 3,000,000 dollars, and 150 people have perished. The police at first raised the alarm by firing guns, and the panic-stricken inhabitants rising from their beds at first thought there was a revolution. The water rose to such a great height that the street lamps were extinguished tinguished.
